RULE CHANGES FOR 2003

Updated rules are scheduled to be available August 1, 2003 on the Health Department's Internet site at http://www.health.state.ok.us/prc/index.html. During July, electronic versions of rule changes may be requested by email from HealthResources@health.state.ok.us (except as noted below).

The rule changes include:

Certificate of Need, Chapter 4. The State Board of Health adopted these rule amendments in March 2003, with an expected effective date of July 11, 2003. The changes establish a process for review of construction plans after approval of a Certificate of Need.

Adult Day Care Centers, Chapter 605. Effective May 27, 2003, more than 20 sections of the rule are amended based on recommendations of the Long Term Care Facility Advisory Board. This is a general update to eliminate unnecessary language and clarify remaining requirements.

Emergency Medical Services, Chapter 641. Effective July 11, 2003, the rule change modifies the ambulance licensure requirements to establish 'enroute' time requirements, allows use of 'emergency medical dispatch' screening, updates vehicle specifications and mandatory equipment lists, requires certification for all EMT training programs, removes pass ratio requirements for instructors and establishes lab assistant and instructor refresher requirements. (In July information or copy requests relating to EMS may be emailed to medicalfacilities@health.state.ok.us.)

Health Maintenance Organizations, Chapter 655. Changes effective July 11, 2003 raise minimum net worth requirements to $1.5 million, phased in over three years. The amendments modify claims-reimbursement language and add risk-bask capital requirements.

Home Care Administrators, Chapter 664. These changes set time limits by which applicants must pass certification examinations. Additionally, the amendments clarify requirements on continuing education and certification renewals. The changes will be effective July 11, 2003.

Hospital Standards, Chapter 667. Changes effective June 12, 2003 remove obsolete language and update requirements. Physician references are revised to include licensed independent practitioners where appropriate. (In July, requests relating to the hospital standards may be emailed to medicalfacilities@health.state.ok.us.)

Trauma Care Assistance Revolving Fund, Chapter 669. Changes effective June 12, 2003 increase the number of cases that are eligible for reimbursement from the Trauma Fund. (In July requests relating to the new Trauma Fund rule may be emailed to medicalfacilities@health.state.ok.us.)

Nursing and Specialized Facilities, Chapter 675. Effective July 11, 2003, the Board of Health adopted changes to more than 20 sections. Several sections address financial solvency requirements authorized in 2002 by House Bill 2604. Staffing ratios are revised to comply with state law.
