SHAWNEE, Okla. —

On Tuesday, Jan. 13, Pleasant Grove School hosted a “Crystal Darkness” Watch Party for fifth through eighth grade students and parents.

“Crystal Darkness” is a 30-minute documentary concerning meth’s impact on families, communities and the state of Oklahoma. More than 50 students, family members and teachers gathered together to watch the 30-minute documentary. Participants enjoyed refreshments and took part in discussion after the viewing. Pleasant Grove school officials said they appreciate those who supported this campaign against meth and its effect on local schools and communities.
