Tiger Cemetery

S2, R15E, T17N, Shahan Township

Directions: North of 131st Street, near some old farm buildings, and a cedar tree by southwest corner of plot.

History: Named after Lyman Tiger (C-694), Creek Indian allottee, on whose 160 acres this cemetery is located. Tiger Cemetery appears upon the U.S. Geological Survey topographic map, Coweta Sheet, 1:24,000, 1963. Only one inscribed tombstone was found, but there are other unmarked graves.

Status: Abandoned, private family burial grounds. Partially fenced, but not maintained. Last surveyed in 1988.
