President Osborn called the meeting to order to hear the request of Jerry Shadid to remove the probation from Case No. 588. Oklahoma City Attorneys, Gary J. James and Ryan Leonard represented Mr. Shadid. Mr. Shadid had been trying to get a waiver to work as a pharmacist to handle and dispense CDS drugs. Mr. James and Mr. Leonard had been working on the process of obtaining a waiver from OBN and DEA. OBN had granted the waiver but DEA has denied the waiver as long as he is on probation with the Board of Pharmacy. Mr. Shadid's original order required his license to be on probation until July 26, 2008. Mr. James made a presentation of documents from federal courts that had dropped the probation of his federal conviction and letters from DEA explaining their denial.

After discussion and questions by the Board, a motion was made by Dorothy Gourley and seconded by Jim Spoon to deny the request. Motion passed on roll call vote with Mr. Lassiter abstaining.

OSBP vs. Charles Michael Gough, D.Ph. #11698 - Case No. 737:

President Osborn called the Board to order to hear the case of Charles Gough. Mr. Gough was present without Counsel. Assistant Attorney General, Brinda White was prosecutor for the Board. OPHP Director, Tandi Reheis, testified for the Board. Ms. Reheis gave a summary of Mr. Gough's compliance with his OPHP contract.

Mr. Gough's pharmacist license was suspended in 1999 until April 23, 2007. He could request reinstatement of his license and probation after October 24, 2004 providing he was compliant with OPHP. He had been reported to the Board as non-complaint in 2004 and 2005. Mr. Potter indicated that in 2004 he had started the process to have a hearing and because of the workload of the Attorney General's office, it was easy to put this case off. Mr. Gough was not a danger to public health due to the fact that he was not working as a pharmacist and thus the delay.

Mr. Gough quit abiding by his OPHP contract in December 2004. He entered extended impatient treatment in July 2005 and left on a pass on August 25, 2005 to make arrangements to pay for the remainder of his treatment. Mr. Gough indicated that he could not afford to return and was discharged from the facility without staff approval. Mr. Gough had failed to participate in his required rehabilitation program for the impaired. Mr. Gough testified that he was unable to afford treatment.

After deliberation, a motion was made by Diana Hampton and seconded by John Lassiter that based on clear and convincing evidence and testimony that was presented, Mr. Gough be found guilty of both counts. Motion passed on roll call vote.
