

September 9-10, 2009

Renaissance Oklahoma City Convention Center & Hotel
10 North Broadway
Oklahoma City, OK 73102

Sponsored by:

Oklahoma Office of Attorney General
Oklahoma Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault
Oklahoma Regional Community Policing Institute
District Attorneys Council
United States Attorneys Office, Eastern, Northern & Western Districts
Oklahoma Department of Corrections
Oklahoma State CASA Association
Oklahoma City Catholic Archdiocese, Office of Family Life
Native Alliance Against Violence
Oklahoma Domestic Violence Fatality Review Board
Oklahoma State Department of Health

This project is supported by Grant 2008WFAX-0014 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, United States Department of Justice to the State of Oklahoma.

Same Great Conference, New Date and New Location!

Register now at:

www.regonline.com/partnersforchange

$50 Registration fee until August 16th then $100!

Limited number of sleeping room scholarships available. Apply before August 13th!

Hotel Reservations must be made by August 17th, 2009 to secure the Conference Rate of $83. Reservations made after August 17th are not guaranteed at the negotiated conference rate.

Continuing Education Credits Applied for:

MCLE 14.25 hours including 1.5 hrs ethics

CJE 12 hours

CLEET 12 hours including 2 hours of mental health

LSW 12 hours

CDSVRP 12 hours

VWC 12 hours

LPC 12 hours

LMFT 12 hours

LBP 12 hours

Wednesday, September 9, 2009

** Conference Committee reserves the right to change or substitute workshops based on registration levels, presenter availability, etc... ****

8:30 a.m. – 8:45 a.m.            Opening Remarks

8:45 a.m. – 10:15 a.m.        General Session *Martin Andrews

10:15 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.       Refreshment Break

10:30 p.m. – 12:00 p.m.      Concurrent Sessions

Human Trafficking, Ken Lawson

Human trafficking is capturing the attention of Americans. Many have seen it portrayed in entertainment media but are unaware of the severity of exploitation in the United States. Participants will be invited to learn what constitutes human trafficking; how prevalent the crime has become; what makes individuals vulnerable to exploitation and how the crime is being carried out today.

Using an Expert Witness in a Sexual Assault Trial, Kristina Korobov, Senior Attorney, National Center for the Prosecution of Violence Against Women, National District Attorneys Association

Overcoming the 79% Factor, Charlotte Bowen

Seventy-nine percent of women with disabilities found treatment services to be inadequate or unavailable to them. This workshop is designed to teach participants to overcome barriers and enhance services for individuals with disabilities in Oklahoma.

Out of Bounds? Ethics for Advocates, N. Ann Lowrance, MS, CDSVRP, Department Head of Social Services, OSU-OKC

This workshop will immerse participants in experiential learning regarding ethics in advocacy, including topics such as understanding informed consent, confidentiality and survivor's rights. This workshop is designed especially for domestic/sexual violence and stalking service providers.

Teen Dating Violence Intervention, Break The Cycle

This workshop will discuss the Teen Prevention and Intervention Program (TPIP), Break the Cycle's program for young offenders of dating violence. The presentation will also address the need for this type of program and advice for starting a similar program.

Sexual Offenders Characteristics: Understanding the Spectrum of Violence Against Women, Part 1, Craig Ackley, Forensic Psychologist, Behavioral Science Education and Consultation Services, Inc.

Juvenile Sexual Assault Victimization Issues, Lisa Luna, Texas Association Against Sexual Assault

This workshop will acquaint participants with the issues involved when working with child and adolescent sexual assault victims.

Expect Respect, Part 1, Barbara Ball, PhD, LPC, ATR-BC, Start Strong Austin Project Director, Expect Respect Program, SafePlace, Austin, Texas

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.      Lunch Break

1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.      Concurrent Sessions

Non-Stranger Sexual Assault, Lyndel Williams, Training Director, Texas Association Against Sexual Assault

This training is designed to prepare police officers for the difficulties in investigating sexual assault cases where the investigation revolves around the credibility of the parties involved. (what investigation doesn't????) Participants will discuss the prevalence of acquaintance rape, the community response to this crime and the challenges involved with the investigation of this crime. Participants will also examine rape myths, intoxication as a defense, and false reporting of sexual assault, and appropriate documentation of these crimes

Educating Jury during Voir Dire, Kristina Korobov, Senior Attorney, National Center for the Prosecution of Violence Against Women, National District Attorneys Association

Improving Access for Hispanic Victims, Cindy Garcia, Program Supervisor, Latino Community Development Agency

This presentation is designed to provide victim service providers with an understanding of the Hispanic culture in Oklahoma, including how to improve access for Hispanic victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking.

Activism: Engaging Youth & Changing Policies, Break the Cycle

This presentation is an interactive workshop examining Break the Cycle's model policy for school response to dating and sexual violence as well as how to engage youth in creating and implementing school policies to end dating and sexual violence.

20+ Years of Batterer Intervention: Lessons Learned, Jim Henderson, MSW, & David Garvin, MSW, Senior Director, Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County

In the movement to end violence against women, there is a growing debate regarding the efficacy of batterer intervention programs. What is their role? How do you measure success? What models are available for referrals? Whose interest do they serve? Is there a role for women? Why not anger management? Drawing from twenty years of experience working with men who batter, the faculty members will lead a didactic presentation and discussion to address these issues and audience questions and comments.

Sexual Offenders Characteristics: Understanding the Spectrum of Violence Against Women, Part 2, Craig Ackley, Forensic Psychologist, Behavioral Science Education and Consultation Services, Inc.

Identifying Juvenile Sexual Assault Offenders, Lisa Luna

This workshop will acquaint participants with the identification of child and adolescent sexual offenders.

Expect Respect, Part 2, Barbara Ball, PhD, LPC, ATR-BC, Start Strong Austin Project ; Expect Respect Program, SafePlace, Austin, Texas

What Do I Do? I Have a Client with Disabilities, Rachele Harjo MA, LPC/LPCC, NCC, LADC

What do I do? I have a client with disabilities. Come explore with us the challenges, joys, frustrations, and pleasure of working with clients who have disabilities related to the issues of domestic violence and sexual assault. Look at the cycle, the meanings, the stories, the statistics, the history, the myths, the options of approach that might assist you in understanding and assisting them through their process of healing and recovery.

3:00 p.m. – 3:15 p.m. Refreshment Break

3:15 p.m. – 4:45 p.m. Concurrent Sessions

Drug Facilitated Sexual Assault, Lyndel Williams, Training Director, Texas Association Against Sexual Assault

In order for police officer's to effectively investigate a drug facilitated sexual assault the officer must be aware of the effects of the drug on the victim. This presentation will discuss which drugs are used, the adverse effects, effective testing procedures and the necessary investigative tools for investigation .

The Link Between DV & Animal Abuse, Melissa Blanton, Domestic Violence Resource Prosecutor, Oklahoma District Attorneys Council

This interactive workshop allows prosecutors to explore the link between animal abuse and domestic violence and discuss ways of working with animal protection agencies in a coordinated community response to protect victims and their pets.

Using an Expert Witness in a Sexual Assault Trial, Kristina Korobov, Senior Attorney, National Center for the Prosecution of Violence Against Women, National District Attorneys Association

Teen Victims of Dating Violence & Their Rights, Break the Cycle

This presentation will consider legal issues from the minor's perspective, including the obstacles teens face when leaving an abusive relationship. Participants will also discuss local laws, how to successfully work with teens, and resources available to combat teen dating violence.

20+ Years of Batterer Intervention: Lessons Learned, Part 2, Jim Henderson, MSW, & David Garvin, MSW, Senior Director, Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County

Sexual Offenders Characteristics: Understanding the Spectrum of Violence Against Women, Part 3, Craig Ackley, Forensic Psychologist, Behavioral Science Education and Consultation Services, Inc.

Myths, Distortions and Popular Misconceptions Regarding Sex Offenders, Randy Lopp

This presentation is designed for mental health professionals seeking a better understanding of the dynamics related to the assessment and treatment of sexual offenders. The presentation will highlight issues related to sex offenses and the assessment/treatment of sexual offenders and criminal statistical information related to sexual offenders. The presentation is designed to debunk the belief that there is a sex offender "profile" and will differentiate between pedophilic and non-pedophilic child molesters. Recidivism risk and treatment efficacy will also be discussed.

Rapist Typologies and Their Effect on Victims: Shawna Cleary, PhD, & N. Ann Lowrance, MS, CDSVRP, Department Head of Social Services, OSU-OKC

This workshop will discuss current rapist typologies and their effects on victims.

Expect Respect, Part 3, Barbara Ball, PhD, LPC, ATR-BC, Start Strong Austin Project Director, Expect Respect Program, SafePlace, Austin, Texas

Thursday, September 10, 2009

8:30 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.            Opening Remarks

8:45 a.m. – 10:15 a.m.        General Session
"What's In A Name"

Jessica Mindlin, National Director of Training and Technical Assistance, Victim Rights Law Center

10:15 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.       Refreshment Break

10:30 p.m. – 12:00 p.m.      Concurrent Sessions

Police Response to Child Prostitution, Byron Fassett, Child Exploitation Unit, Dallas Police Dept, Dallas, Texas

Law enforcement has traditionally treated children involved in prostitution merely as offenders. This course will present a new response model designed to move them from the realm of offender to that of victim and to hold accountable those who exploit them.

Legal Update, Susan Damron Krug, Victim Services Unit, Chief, Oklahoma Office of Attorney General

Working with Deaf & Hard of Hearing Victims of Sexual Violence in Oklahoma, Kristina Hakey & Glenna Cooper

This workshop will address communication barriers experienced by deaf and hard of hearing victims and empower providers to use available resources to competently meet the needs of non-speaking victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Privacy, Privilege & Confidentiality for Sexual Assault Survivors, Jessica Mindlin, National Director of Training and Technical Assistance, Victim Rights Law Center & Lindy Aldrich

Privacy is one of the most significant issues for victims of sexual assault. This interactive workshop will provide an overview of privacy issues for sexual assault victims, present examples regarding record keeping and release forms, and offer tips for how service providers can be proactive to help protect the information that a victim seeks to keep most private.

Batterers Perception vs. Choice, Deb Cook RN MS PMHCNS-BC CCBT, Batterer Intervention Specialist, Accountable Choices

This interactive session explores perception and choice dynamics within relationships, especially as relates to male batterers, obfuscation, core beliefs and male privilege.

What You Don't Know Could Hurt Me, Jason O'Neal & Renee' Brewer

This interactive workshop will demonstrate to participants best practice development for holistic victims advocacy and law enforcement response by highlighting the unique barriers facing American Indian victims in the state criminal justice process. Attendees will discuss effective techniques for working across systems for maximum response to victims needs including cross deputation agreements and lay advocate representation in tribal and state court systems.

Assessing Risk in Returning Veterans, Lynn Van Male, PhD

Facilitating a Sense of Safety through Self Regulation Part 1, Lynda Jacobs

Healthy self-regulation is one of the most important tasks we can learn. Understanding self-regulation and gaining skills to modulate arousal in ourselves and the people we serve, will help to disrupt the cycle of violence and initiate healing from the overwhelming effects of trauma. Through lecture and interaction, participants will learn to understand and identify dysregulation. Part 2 will focus on skills.

Incest: Best (or Worst?) Kept Secret, N. Ann Lowrance, MS, CDSVRP, Department Head of Social Services, OSU-OKC

This workshop is designed to explore the hidden world of incest, including the dynamics of incest, offender information and the impact on survivors in the healing process.

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.            Lunch Break

1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.            Concurrent Sessions

VINE Protective Order, Jennifer Taylor, Program Manager, Victim Services Unit, Office of Attorney General

CCR: Benefits of Evidence Based Prosecution, Panel moderated by Sandra Thompson, Coordinated Community Response Specialist, District Attorneys Council

Participants will gain knowledge regarding the benefits of a Coordinated Community Response and the basics of starting a team. Participants will also be introduced to system changing outcomes developed by two Coordinated Community Response teams, Cleveland County and Rogers County.

Civil Legal Remedies for Sexual Violence Victims, Jessica Mindlin, National Director of Training and Technical Assistance, Victim Rights Law Center & Lindy Aldrich, Victim Rights Law Center

Civil legal advocacy is a critical complement to the remedies and rights available to sexual assault victims through the criminal justice process. The presentation will help advocates and other providers to better identify, understand and pursue civil legal remedies to promote victim healing and recovery. The workshop will provide an overview of victims' needs in employment, housing, privacy, education, immigration, safety and other areas of the law.

Virtual Worlds - Real Dangers, Joseph Rampolla, Lieutenant, Park Ridge Police Department, Illinois

Virtual Worlds are emerging as one of the newest and cutting edge technologies our society has ever seen. Second Life, the crown jewel of virtual worlds, is just one example of how this new world mimics life as we know it. Second Life is not a video game but a virtual world that parallels our real lives (1st Life). Facebook and YouTube rule young kids lives but Second Life is possibly the newest biggest threat that teens will be facing. This presentation will use Second Life as an example as to the power and danger that virtual worlds bring to our society. You will experience areas of virtual worlds that will "shock the conscious." This virtual world will sicken law enforcement, counselors, child advocates and parents as we slide down this virtual slippery slope. Since most virtual worlds are based on an open-source concept, users can create their own buildings and devices which is only limited to ones imagination. Even the makers of virtual worlds cannot predict where or how this world will change in the future. Law enforcement and child advocates should be concerned and alarmed on how this virtual life will affect teens / children and the predators who prey upon them.

Indian Children – The Forgotten Victims of Domestic Violence, David Hall, Assistant District Attorney, Seminole County & Renee' Brewer, Director, Native Alliance Against Violence

This interactive workshop will engage participants in discussing the issues surrounding domestic violence cases where the Indian Child Welfare act is used by batterers to exhibit power and control. This workshop will provide real live case scenario to demonstrate the tactics used by perpetrators in these cases.

FBI Highway Serial Killer Initiative

Facilitating a Sense of Safety through Self Regulation Part 2, Lynda Jacobs

Part 2 will be interactive and experiential. Participants will gain skills to help clients discover safe and effective ways to self-regulate.

Batterers' use of Sexual Abuse and Sexual Violence, Deb Cook

Although pervasive and very harmful, sexual abuse/violence often appears "invisible" in the battering relationship. Perceptions on what is, or is not, sexual abuse/violence influences choices within, and outside of, battering relationships.

3:00 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.                      Refreshment Break

3:15 p.m. – 4:45 p.m.                      Concurrent Sessions

Domestic Violence: From the Crime Scene to the Courtroom" Tyson Stanek, Criminal Defense Attorney and Brady R. Henderson, Assistant District Attorney, District 21 - Cleveland County

This presentation is designed for law enforcement and first responders on how investigation translates into the courtroom. This workshop will give officers and others a look at how small choices in investigation and response can make all the difference at trial. We will discuss and highlight real reports and evidence, focusing on how decisions made at the scene or in report writing affect what happens in the courtroom. From the prospective of both prosecutor and defense attorney, we will feature the things we look for in reports and evidence that can either strengthen a case or tear it apart. This workshop, will demystify the interaction between prosecutors and defense attorneys so that participants can build better cases and have an improved understanding of how their role affects the outcome of the case

Legal Update (Repeat), Susan Damron Krug, Chief, Victim Services Unit, Office of Attorney General

Virtual World of Second Life (Repeat), Joseph Rampolla, Lieutenant, Park Ridge Police Department, Illinois

Interviewing Those Victimized by Violence, James Henderson, Technical Assistance Provider, Battered Women's Justice Project

Participants will discover the basics of domestic violence from the victims' perspective, identify ways to enhance victim satisfaction with the criminal justice system and learn strategies for contacting those victimized by violence. Participants will learn how our communication may be blaming and re-victimizing. You will be able to identify clarifiers to reduce shame, explore ways to enhance communication and decide what information should be shared in a safety enhancing manner. Confidentiality will be examined from a courts perspective with victim safety at the forefront of all decisions.

Good Guys Don't Let Bad Guys Have Guns, Rob Wallace, Assistant US Attorney, Eastern District, United States Attorneys Office

An overview of federal firearms prohibitions and their applicability in Oklahoma.

Safety in a Tech World, Beth Stanford, Director of Education, Oklahoma Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

This workshop will highlight the use of technology devices and how they can be used for either enhancing victims' safety or utilized as a threatening device by a perpetrator.

Biographies

Craig Ackley is a Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) currently assigned to the Behavioral Analysis Unit of the National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime (NCAVC), FBI Academy, Quantico, Virginia. SSA Ackley provides behavioral assistance to local, state, and federal law enforcement primarily in the areas of adult homicide, sexual assault, intimate partner violence, and risk assessment for dangerousness. SSA Ackley has been a law enforcement officer for 26 years, the last 20 of which have been with the FBI, and has been involved in the investigation and/or analysis of violent crime his entire career. He has an M.S. in Psychology and is currently in the process of completing a PhD in Psychology.

Lindy Aldrich is a staff attorney at the Victim Rights Law Center in Boston, MA. Lindy Aldrich represents victims of sexual assault across the Commonwealth in a wide range of legal areas, including her specialty of federal and state government benefits. She coordinates the VRLC's pro bono panel, the Rape Survivors Law Project, providing trainings and case facilitation for attorneys and paraprofessionals throughout Massachusetts, as well as provides legal technical assistance on non-intimate partner sexual assault cases to OVW grantees. Lindy graduated from Suffolk University Law School in May 2006. Prior to attending Suffolk, Lindy had a 10 year career in advertising and marketing.

Martin Andrews was a victim of a sexual predator in 1973 and started a one-man campaign to pass, fund, and implement the Civil Commitment of Sexually Violent Predators legislation in Virginia after learning that his assailant would be released in 2003. He brings a message of survival and hope to thousands of victims of sexual abuse through his personal and television appearances, including The Today Show and Fox News Channel, as well as through his published works, including articles in the New York Times and the Washington Post. Andrews provides training for advocates and mental health and criminal justice professionals, and acts as an advisor to various advocacy organizations.

Barbara Ball, Ph.D., has over 15 years of clinical experience working with children and teens from violent homes and has integrated creative components into the Expect Respect Teen Dating Violence Prevention Program. She has had primary responsibility for developing the Expect Respect Program Manual which includes support groups for at-risk youths, teen leadership groups and school-wide prevention strategies. Barbara coordinates the evaluation of the Expect Respect Program in conjunction with the Centers of Disease Control and Prevention. She is the director of Start Strong Austin, a collaboration of school and community organizations that works to build healthy teen relationships. Start Strong Austin, is one of 11 sites funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's national Start Strong Initiative.

Melissa Blanton is the Domestic Violence Resource Prosecutor for the Oklahoma District Attorneys Council which provides consultation, technical assistance and training for prosecutors and allied professionals on domestic violence. Melissa previously served as an Assistant District Attorney for approximately 6 years where she prosecuted cases in Garfield and Grant Counties.

Charlotte Bowen is currently a General Employment Trainer for the National Center for Disability Education and Training at the University of Oklahoma. She served as the program manager for Oklahoma's Statewide Independent Living Council (SILC) from December 1, 2002 to February 28, 2007 and prior to that she was the executive director of the Brain Injury Association of Oklahoma (BIA-OK) from April 20, 1994 through November 22, 2002. She is the stepmother of a person with a brain injury and has her MA in Christian Counseling. She serves on various task forces and advisory councils including Oklahoma's Olmstead State Planning Committee, Oklahoma AgrAbility Project Advisory Council and Peer Support Subcommittee, Oklahoma Health Care Authority Opportunities for Living Life Advisory Board, Oklahoma Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault's "Safe Access" committee, and numerous ad hoc short term planning committees working on issues effecting people with disabilities. She has attended and presented at numerous workshops and seminars concerning traumatic brain injury, independent living philosophy and other issues concerning individuals with disability.

Renee Brewer is an enrolled citizen of the Muscogee (Creek) Nation and serves as the Executive Director of the Native Alliance Against Violence. She is also a Reserve Officer for the Seminole Nation Lighthorse Police. She has over 9 years of experience dealing with Indian victims of crime. She has extensive knowledge and experience assisting Native victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking, in tribal, state, and Federal court settings. As an advocate, law enforcement officer and a domestic violence survivor herself, Renee has a unique perspective on systems response issues in addressing victim's needs. Renee hopes to use her experience and perspective to raise awareness of the unique issues facing Indian victims. Renee holds a B.S. in Criminal Justice from St. Gregory's University, and is currently finishing her M.S. at East Central .

Shawna Cleary is an associate professor in the Department of Sociology, Criminal Justice, and Substance Abuse Studies at the University of Central Oklahoma. She earned her doctorate in Sociology at the University of Oklahoma, where she was the 2002 winner of the OU Provost's Ph.D. Dissertation Award. Dr. Cleary has been a volunteer lecturer on rapist typologies for the YWCA of Oklahoma City since 1996. In addition, she is a member of the Oklahoma Attorney General's Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Advisory Council and the Oklahoma Coalition for Sex Offender Management (OKCSOM). Dr. Cleary's research on profiling serial murderers and her studies on sex offenders have been presented at national meetings of the American Sociological Association, the American Society of Criminology, the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, and the Association for Crime Scene Reconstruction. Dr. Cleary is the author of Sex Offenders and Self-Control: Explaining Sexual Violence, available from LFB Scholarly Publishing.

Deb Cook is a batterer intervention specialist and group facilitator with male perpetrators within batterer intervention programs. She has collaborated on batterer workbooks, created and performed lethality assessments, authored continuing education classes and trained health professionals, prosecuting attorneys, and victim advocates.

Glenna K. Cooper is the division director and is responsible for the management and operations of the CSD of Oklahoma unit in addition to the CEPIN National training program as national logistic coordinator. Glenna has over 18 years of experience in program management, supervision, grant writing, and marketing. She had implemented the Oklahoma Domestic Violence Awareness Program for the Deaf and hard of hearing communities and providers to improve communication accessible services. She is currently working with Department of Health and Oklahoma Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust to develop and implement a new Oklahoma Tobacco Awareness program for the deaf and hard of hearing.. She is currently involved with CEPIN National project to provide trainings for emergency responders and consumers with hearing loss, which is funded by US Dept of Homeland Security. In addition, she serves on the subject matter expert team to review the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's FEMA/Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Special Needs Planning Guidebook for Emergency Managers. She previously managed telecommunication relay call center with 250+ employees for Ameritech/Southwestern Bell/CSD's USA Relay in Ohio for several years. She held BA-LS Leadership Administration from O. U. and is working toward her Masters in Public Administration.

Susan Damron Krug joined the District Attorneys Council (DAC) staff shortly after the Victims Bill of Rights was passed by the Oklahoma Legislature and worked for the Oklahoma Crime Victims Compensation Board until 1985 at which time she was promoted to grants administrator, developing and overseeing the Drug Control and System Improvement Program and supervising the Crime Victim Assistance Program. After graduating from the evening program at Oklahoma City University School of Law while continuing her duties at DAC and serving as a legal intern for the Oklahoma County District Attorney, she continued to work as staff attorney for DAC until 1997 when she became the advocate general for the Office of Juvenile Affairs (OJA), providing oversight, recommendations, and independent action to protect juveniles' safety and legal rights while in OJA placements. Susan began working as Assistant Attorney General in the Environmental Protection Unit in 2001. On July 1, 2005, the Victims Services Unit was created within the Office of Attorney General, and Susan was promoted to chief of that unit. Among other things, the unit is the oversight agency for domestic violence and sexual assault programs and funding liaison for Court Appointed Special Advocates programs. The unit also provides victim witness services for families involved in criminal appeals cases. Susan participated on the Child Death Review Board from 1997 - 2001, and has served as President of the Oklahoma Child Support Enforcement Association in 1999 as well as on numerous other state boards and councils. She currently serves on the Domestic Violence Fatality Review Board, the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Board, the Oklahoma Sexual Violence Prevention Planning Committee, and the Oklahoma Task Force on Child Abuse and Neglect.

Sergeant Byron Fassett is a 28-year veteran of the Dallas Police Department where he heads the Child Exploitation Unit. He speaks widely on topics related to child exploitation for such entities as the U. S. Department of Justice, National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and the Internet Crimes Against Children Training and Technical Assistance Program.

Susannah Faxon-Mills works on multiple levels to educate young people about domestic and dating violence as Youth Education Coordinator at Break the Cycle. Susannah graduated with honors from the University of California-Santa Cruz in 2006 with a BA in Community Studies. Her commitment to young people and their right to stay informed and healthy has guided her academic and professional choices. She organized youth in Chicago, co-created and taught a class on Youth and Sexual Politics at UCSC, and served as a Resident Advisor and instructional assistant in college.

Colleen Gallopin provides training and technical assistance on issues related to dating violence and is active in national and local domestic violence policy initiatives, focusing on school policy and safety. She received her law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Cindy Garcia has a BA in Spanish and has lived for 20+ years in Mexico where she served in ministry and in public education. She works at the Latino Community Development Agency as a Program Supervisor and in December graduates from the Graduate Programs in Counseling at SNU.

David J. H. Garvin MSW, LMSW is the Senior Director at Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County (www.csswashtenaw.org/ada). David is responsible for the management of the Alternatives to Domestic Aggression Program (ADA). David is also the Director of the Behavioral Health Services program, Substance Abuse Treatment Services, The Supervised Parenting & Exchange Program and the Adoption and Pregnancy Programs of Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County. David is also the Chair and Co-Founder of the Batterer Intervention Services Coalition of Michigan (www.BISCMi.org).

Kristina Hakey served as Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (DV/SA) Outreach Specialist for CSD of Oklahoma. She had developed and provided community-wide training on deafness and accessible tools to service providers, and assisted in ensuring that Deaf and Hard of Hearing domestic violence and sexual assault victims had access to all needed services. She also developed and provided community domestic violence and sexual assault awareness education program to the deaf and hard of hearing communities. Kristina provided Deaf culture and American Sign Language training to the service providers. She has taught American Sign Language at Tulsa Technology for ten years, served as the Director of Miss Deaf Oklahoma Pageant for past six years, and presently serves on the Oklahoma Association of the Deaf Board. She held A.A. Degree in Liberal Arts at Tulsa Community College and is working toward her BA in Human Relations at University of Oklahoma.

David Hall is an Assistant District Attorney in Seminole County, Oklahoma. In his role as prosecutor, David has had the opportunity to assist law enforcement agencies in his community with training regarding the prosecution of all crimes, including domestic violence. David is also a full-time professor at East Central University in Ada, Oklahoma teaching in area of Criminal Justice.

Rachelle Harjo, MA, LPC/LPCC, NCC, LADC under supervision is a mental health care professional in the states of New Mexico and Oklahoma. Rachelle has provided and ran multiple services and agencies related to behavioral health through the years including in the areas of sexual assault and domestic violence as well as in other areas of trauma, substance abuse, self injury, childhood disorders, addictions including gambling, with psychoeducational and multimodal treatment approaches. Rachelle travels providing presentations on many topics across the country with a favorite related to adolescents who self harm. Rachelle resides in Edmond, OK with her husband and three children. She is Clinical Director of First Americans' Consulting Group and a contract provider with Family and Children's Consulting.

Brady R. Henderson has been with the Cleveland County District Attorney's office for four and a half years. Starting as a volunteer intern, he has since prosecuted general misdemeanor and felony cases and worked in Child Support Enforcement before beginning his present assignment in charge of the Domestic Violence Unit, which prosecutes domestic abuse and assault cases, protective order violations, and stalking. In addition to prosecuting cases, his duties include counseling victims and training law enforcement. Brady is a member of the Cleveland County Domestic Violence Task Force and Coordinated Community Response Team.

James Henderson works for the Battered Women's Justice Project as a Technical Assistance provider and trains on issues related to domestic violence. Jim was the probation officer responsible for overseeing the policies and practices of Intensive Probation for Domestic Violence offenders in Ann Arbor MI. He was assigned to the Washtenaw County Domestic Violence Unit as part of the Judicial Oversight Demonstration Initiative from 1999 to 2005 and works from a system perspective to enhance victim's safety and defendant accountability. He has worked as a provider of batterer intervention within the Detroit metropolitan area since 1995.

Lynda Jacobs, MHR, LPC, with years of experience in body-focused therapies, brings an understanding of trauma that includes current research on the effectiveness of mindfulness and the inclusion of the body in working with traumatized clients and vicarious traumatization. Lynda has led retreats and presented on Vicarious Traumatization and Understanding Trauma at conferences, and in university and organizational settings.

Tabitha Joyner educates youth and service providers about teen dating violence, conducts community outreach and provides public education in the Washington, DC area. Tabitha is a bilingual advocate of youth services and social justice and a certified ESL teacher.

Kristina Korobov, J.D. is a Senior Attorney for the National Center for the Prosecution of Violence Against Women, a division of the National District Attorney's Association. Prior to joining NCPVAW, Kristina served as an Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney with the Loudoun County Commonwealth's Attorney in Leesburg, Virginia, a suburb of Washington, DC. She handled all Domestic Violence and Physical Child Abuse Cases and was responsible for Law Enforcement Training. Kristina was a member of the Loudoun Domestic Abuse Response Team (DART) and she chaired the Child Protection Team Subcommittee of the DART. Kristina came to Virginia from Indianapolis, where she was the Coordinator of the Indianapolis Violence Reduction Partnership, an initiative funded by the United States Department of Justice. Prior to that, Korobov served as Chief Counsel for Strand Analytical Laboratories, a private DNA Lab in Indianapolis. From 1996 until 2005, Kristina worked in the Marion County (Indianapolis) Prosecutor's Office. She served as Chief of the Sex Crimes and Child Abuse Unit, Chief of the Domestic Violence Unit and as a Major Felony Prosecutor. In addition to handling cases, Kristina was responsible for attorney supervision and training, policy development, community outreach and training for law enforcement officers. Among other cases during her tenure, Korobov prosecuted Marion County's first Repeat Sex Offender, a police officer who was manufacturing child pornography, and serial rapist Charles Hill. In 2002, Kristina was named Prosecutor of the Year by the Indiana Coalition Against Sexual Assault and received an Outstanding Lecturer Award from Communities Against Rape / Center of Hope for Youth. Defense attorneys refer to Ms. Korobov as the "Queen of Pain" and the "Princess of Darkness." She is a runner who has completed two marathons and has vowed never to do another. In her spare time, she enjoys half-marathons and eating fattening foods that she will later have to work off by running half-marathons.

Ken Lawson has 21 years of law enforcement experience. He has led over 1200 sexual assault and kidnapping investigations. Ken trains children's services caseworkers to address human trafficking through the Ohio Child Welfare Training Program. He consulted on a RAND Corporation study of human trafficking in Ohio. Ken consulted for the Violence Against Women Project at the International Association of Chiefs of Police. He vetted research and educational materials for Shared Hope International. The Ohio Office of Criminal Justice Services contracted him to offer regional human trafficking training. Ken has briefed foreign civilian and military officials on human trafficking at the request of U.S. governmental agencies.

Randy Lopp, MHR, is a Licensed Professional Counselor in private practice in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He is also a Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor as well as a Certified Criminal Justice Specialist. He is a clinical member of the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers and a member of the National Association of Forensic Counselors. He is the Chairperson of the Oklahoma Coalition for Sex Offender Management. He is the past Executive Director of a mental health agency specializing in the treatment of addictive disorders. He has also served on the administrative staff of the Rader Treatment Program. He has developed sexual deviancy programs as well as substance abuse treatment programs for adult and juvenile delinquency populations. He has provided expert testimony in both state and federal jurisdictions. He is particularly interested in forensic assessments.

N. Ann Lowrance, MS, CDSVRP, has worked with victims of violent crime for almost 30 years. She is currently Department Head of Social Services and Assistant Professor of Crime Victim Survivor Services at Oklahoma State University, Oklahoma City. She has directed domestic violence and sexual assault programs in Oklahoma and Texas. In her 16-year service with the State of Oklahoma, she was responsible for domestic violence and sexual assault programs throughout the state, and the mental health response to the bombing of the Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City. Ann holds a Masters degree in Family Relations and Child Development from Oklahoma State University, and has post graduate studies in Psychology of Women. She has spoken extensively at state and national events on the subjects of domestic violence and sexual assault, has served as an expert witness and has published on both subjects. She has also presented on victims of crimes and response to disasters. Ms. Lowrance was cited by the United States Department of Justice for "Outstanding Dedication and Service to Crime Victims". The Oklahoma Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault named an award in her honor.

Lisa Luna is a Training Specialist for the Texas Association Against Sexual Assault. Additionally, Lisa is a licensed Social Worker, a Certified Criminal Justice Specialist with the National Association of Forensic Counselors and a Licensed TCLEOSE Instructor. She is a member of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Safe Prison Advisory Council and provides training at the Parole Officer In-service Academy on Supervising Sexual Predators

Jessica Mindlin is the National Director of Training & Technical Assistance for the Victim Rights Law Center (VRLC), a non-profit dedicated to transforming the nation's legal response to sexual assault. She is a former: rape victim advocate, public defender trial assistant, counselor for battered women and runaway youth, and waitress.

Jason O'Neal assisted the Chickasaw Nation in the re-establishment of the Lighthorse Police Department and was hired as the Chief of Police in 2004. The Chickasaw Nation's jurisdictional territory includes more than 7,648 square miles in south-central Oklahoma and encompasses all or parts of 13 Oklahoma counties. Jason is a member of the Oklahoma District Attorney's Council - Violence Against Women Grant Board, the National Native American Law Enforcement Association, the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the Oklahoma Sheriff's and Peace Officer's Association and is an appointed member of the Oklahoma Association of Chiefs of Police Executive Board. Jason is a gubernatorial appointee to the Oklahoma's Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training (CLEET) Board. Jason began his law enforcement career as a Military Police Officer in the United States Marine Corps during which he handled both narcotic and explosive detector dogs. During this time he was assigned to operations with the U.S. Secret Service on executive protection throughout California and Nevada. Jason then worked as a Supervisory Police Officer in the United States Department of the Interior – Bureau of Indian Affairs for six years. During this assignment he was responsible for enforcement of Federal, State and Tribal laws throughout a number of reservations in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Arizona and Oklahoma. Jason holds certifications as a federal law enforcement officer and a state law enforcement officer. Jason is a certified canine handler in patrol, narcotics and explosives. Jason has a total of 15 years law enforcement service and has been the recipient of multiple federal, local and tribal awards including the 2008 NNALEA Police Chief of the Year award.

Joseph Rampolla has been a law enforcement officer for fourteen years. In 1994 he received a Masters of Arts degree in Criminal Justice from John Jay College in New York City. Joseph holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Law & Society from Ramapo College of New Jersey. He became a police officer in 1995 and currently holds the rank of Lieutenant for the Park Ridge Police Department. He has supervised numerous criminal investigations within the department and oversees the Detective Bureau. In 2003 he was assigned to the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office Computer Crimes Task Force. He has successfully completed training offered by county, state and federal agencies as well as leading technology companies with a focus in the areas of computer forensics, Internet child exploitation, human trafficking, sex related crimes and Peer-to-Peer file sharing investigations. He is a member of the HTCIA, HTCC, and IACIS where he has earned the classification of Certified Forensic Computer Examiner (CFCE). He is a national speaker on the topic of cyber crimes, virtual worlds, and cyber bullying. Joseph is affiliated with the Shadowserver Foundation, a non-profit organization that gather, track, and report on malware, botnet activity, and electronic fraud. He has taught International law enforcement at Microsoft in Redmond and taught cybercrime topics to all levels of law enforcement for the National Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force.

Tyson Stanek was born and raised in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and graduated from Casady High School. He received a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science from Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas in 1996. After a career in software development, he earned his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Oklahoma, College of Law in 2006. Mr. Stanek worked as a Licensed Legal Intern for the Cleveland County District Attorney's office during his final year of law school. After successfully passing the Oklahoma Bar Exam, he was sworn in as an attorney in 2006 and has practiced criminal defense ever since. He is a member of the Cleveland County Domestic Violence Task Force.

Tyson Stanek was born and raised in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and graduated from Casady High School. He received a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science from Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas in 1996. After a career in software development, he earned his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Oklahoma, College of Law in 2006. Mr. Stanek worked as a Licensed Legal Intern for the Cleveland County District Attorney's office during his final year of law school. After successfully passing the Oklahoma Bar Exam, he was sworn in as an attorney in 2006 and has practiced criminal defense ever since. He is a member of the Cleveland County Domestic Violence Task Force.

Beth Stanford is the Director of Education for the Oklahoma Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault. She is a certified law enforcement trainer through the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center and a Certified Domestic & Sexual Violence Response Professional through the Oklahoma Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault.

Jennifer Taylor, BS, OK VINE Program Coordinator, Oklahoma Attorney General's Office is a native of Oklahoma. She received her Associate Degree from Oklahoma State University – OKC in Crime Victim Survivor Services and completed her Bachelor Degree from Southern Nazarene University in Family Studies and Gerontology. Her professional experience includes working at the Oklahoma City Police Department as the Homicide Advocate, Oklahoma County District Attorney's Office as the Domestic Violence Coordinator, and Oklahoma Criminal Justice Resource Center as a research assistant for the Oklahoma Domestic Violence Fatality Review Board. Currently, Jennifer is working at Oklahoma Attorney General's Office implementing OK VINE: Oklahoma's Criminal Tracking and Victim Notification Service. Jennifer's interest in crime victim services stems from her personal experiences as a victim and her passion to improve the criminal justice system to better serve victims.

Sandra Thompson is the Coordinated Community Response Specialist with the District Attorneys Council. Sandra has worked in the violence against women field for almost two decades. Past experience to include, five years as Executive Director of a transitional living program in Canada, ten years as Shelter Manager for Help-In- Crisis in Tahlequah, and two years in Oklahoma City with the YWCA as Shelter Operations Manager and then Director of Volunteer Outreach. While in Canada, Sandra chaired the Coordinated Community Response development committee that implemented a CCR Team in Simcoe, Ontario.

Lynn Van Male, PhD, Staff Psychologist, PTSD, Clinical Team Member, Disruptive Behavior Board and Threat Assessment Team, Portland VA Medical Center, Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, Oregon Health and Sciences University, Portland, Oregon is a National Master Trainer for VA Prevention and Management of Disruptive Behavior Program. She's an invited member of several VA Technical Advisory Groups addressing violence risk and threat assessment in health care settings. Her clinical work with veterans focuses on assessing and treating PTSD symptoms due to military combat and sexual trauma.

Lyndel Williams has completed the National College of District Attorney's prosecution of Sexual Assault course. He is a member of the International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association and is a certified TCLEOSE instructor. He was appointed by Governor Perry to the Governor's Criminal Justice Advisory Council.