INSTRUCTOR: GURO FELIX VALENCIA

Valencia Lameco Escrima (VLE) is the development of Guro Felix Valencia, who is the most Senior Student of PG Sulite. It includes and adapts what he has learned from teachers of Muay Thai, Herman Suwanda's Mande Muda Silat, Hawaiian Lua, Shooto, BJJ and others, as well as his personal experiences as bodyguard, security and deputy sheriff.

Valencia Lameco Escrima utilizes a volatile arsenal of techniques that allow the practitioner to flow without interruption between the various ranges of combat both armed and unarmed.

Guro Valencia has become one of the few martial artists to earn a reputation in both martial arts and law enforcement communities and, as a result of this, he has become one of the premier, most sought-after instructors in close quarter weapons instruction.

Guro Valencia has instructed law enforcement officers, civilians and numerous organizations from around the world to include the following:

LA Police Dept;
Santa Barbara Sheriff Training Bureau;
Toledo, Ohio Police Academy;
Austin, Texas Police Academy;
Oklahoma County Sheriff's Office
Arizona Highway Police (DTS);
US Marshall Honolulu, Hawaii;
CSTI California Specialized Training Institute;
Governor's Office for Emergency Services;

National Guard of California;
Giddings, Texas Police;
Halo Group;
