

December 30, 2013
Emergency Public Hearing for Rulemaking
Proposed Emergency Rule Changes – Bail Enforcement Act
Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training
K.O. Rayburn Training Center
2401 Egypt Road, Ada, Oklahoma
10:00 a.m.

MINUTES

Staff Present:

Steve Emmons, Executive Director
Norma Floyd, Administrative Assistant
Laurie Schweinle, Recording Secretary
Catherine Streater, Paralegal
James Wilson, General Counsel

Guests:

Mr. Alan Grayson, PSAC

1. Opening and Introductions

At 10:06 a.m. Mr. James Wilson called the meeting to order. He introduced Mr. Alan Grayson as the only guest and informed everyone that the comment period had been extended to January 31, 2014.

2. Discussion of the Proposed Rule Changes

Mr. Wilson read the proposed new rules in subchapter 390:60-1 and read the section titles. He then asked for comment and receiving none, moved on to the next subchapter.

Mr. Wilson read the proposed new rules in subchapter 390:60-5 and read the section titles. He then asked for comment and receiving none, moved on to the next subchapter.

Mr. Wilson read the proposed new rules in subchapter 390:60-7 and read the section titles. He then asked for comment and receiving none, moved on to the next subchapter.

Mr. Wilson read the proposed new rules in subchapter 390:60-9 and read the section titles. He then asked for comment and receiving none, moved on to the next subchapter.

Mr. Wilson read the proposed new rules in subchapter 390:60-11 and read the section titles. He then asked for comment and receiving none, moved on to the next subchapter.

Mr. Wilson read the proposed new rules in subchapter 390:60-13 and read the section titles. He then asked for comment and receiving none, moved on to the next subchapter.

Mr. Wilson read the proposed new Appendices A, B, and C. He then asked for comment and receiving none, moved on to the next item of business.

3. Comments from Visitors

There were no comments. Mr. Wilson again reminded guests that the comment period has been extended to January 31, 2014.

4. Adjournment

Mr. Wilson adjourned the meeting at 10:11 a.m.