

Section 1941. Denial, revocation, suspension, or placement on probation of license.

A. The State Department of Health may deny, revoke, suspend, or place on probation any license or specialty designation issued pursuant to the provisions of the Licensed Behavioral Practitioner Act to a licensed behavioral practitioner, if the person has:

1. Been convicted of a felony;
2. Been convicted of a misdemeanor determined to be of such a nature as to render the person convicted unfit to practice behavioral health;
3. Engaged in fraud or deceit in connection with services rendered or in establishing needed qualifications pursuant to the provisions of this act;
4. Knowingly aided or abetted a person not licensed pursuant to these provisions in representing himself or herself as a licensed behavioral practitioner in this state;
5. Engaged in unprofessional conduct as defined by the rules established by the State Board of Health;
6. Engaged in negligence or wrongful actions in the performance of the licensee's duties; or
7. Misrepresented any information required in obtaining a license.

B. No license or specialty designation shall be suspended or revoked, nor a licensed behavioral practitioner placed on probation, until notice is served upon the licensed behavioral practitioner and a hearing is held in conformity with Article II of the Administrative Procedures Act.
