

Section 1925.10.

Commencing September 1, 1991, no person who is not licensed under this act shall:

1. Advertise the performance of marital and family therapy service by such person unless pursuant to another professional license in accordance with Oklahoma Statutes;
2. Use a title or description such as "licensed marital or family therapist", or any other name, style or description denoting that the person is a licensed marital and family therapist; or
3. Practice marital and family therapy except as provided for in subsection B of Section 3 of this act.