

Section 1925.7.

A. Examinations shall be held at such times, at such places and in such a manner as the State Department of Health directs. An examination shall be held at least annually. Examinations may be written or oral or both written and oral. In any written examination such applicant's name shall not be disclosed to the Department until the examinations have been graded. Examinations shall include questions in such theoretical and applied fields as the Department deems most suitable to test an applicant's knowledge and competence in the practice of marital and family therapy.

B. The Department shall determine the acceptable grade on the examinations. If an applicant fails to pass the examinations, the applicant may reapply.

C. The Department shall preserve answer sheets to any examinations, and the applicant's performance on each section, as a part of the records of the Department for a period of two (2) years following the date of the examination.
