

Mapping Out My Asset-Building Opportunities

Everybody is an asset builder. And there's no time like the present to begin mapping out all the opportunities, big and small, to promote the well-being of children and youth in your community. Take a few minutes to jot some ideas down here:

Where do I see kids? (Near where you live, at school, where you work, when you visit friends)

Who are the kids I know? (Neighbors, children of coworkers, kids at church, checkout clerks and baggers at the grocery store)

What can I do in a small way to build an asset tomorrow?

What can I do at the place I work, study, play, worship, visit?

How and when can I do more?

Who can I partner with?
