Our May meeting will feature Madalene Witterholt who will present:

“Good News! Spring has Sprung and so has another new I-9”

This presentation will cover suggested policies and procedures related to I-9 completion, common mistakes, questions and a test your skills portion.

Madalene A. B. Witterholt serves as a director for Crowe & Dunlevy. Deciding to practice the law where she learned it, this distinguished alum from the University of Tulsa (B.A. 1980; J.D. 1983) serves in the corporation’s Tulsa offices, specializing in labor and employment, litigation and trial, and worker’s compensation law.

Before working for Crowe & Dunlevy, Ms. Witterholt worked as a law clerk to the Honorable James O. Ellison, judge of the U.S. District Court, Northern District.

Ms. Witterholt puts her specialized knowledge to use outside of practice, co-authoring a published work in The Oklahoma Bar Journal on disability, and having taught on topics relating to employment law for Lorman, a continuing education service.

She is also a member of the American Bar Association (Labor and Employment Law Section) and served as chairperson for the Oklahoma Bar Association under the same category in 1996.

This program is brought to you in cooperation with the law firm of Crowe & Dunlevy with offices in Okc & Tulsa.
