ANNUAL RACIAL PROFILING REPORT
CALENDAR YEAR 2010

JOHN D. CARRINGTON
Executive Director

*The Oklahoma Human Rights Commission would like to take this opportunity to recognize the many officers of municipal, county and state law enforcement agencies who uphold the core values of professionalism through their dedication and desire to provide equality, safety, loyalty, respect, courtesy, integrity, and self-discipline
to the citizens of Oklahoma*

Executive Director

State of Oklahoma
HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

This report is submitted pursuant to Oklahoma's Racial Profiling Law, 22 O.S. § 34.3 et seq., which was effective July 1, 2000. The Racial Profiling Law prohibits any law enforcement officer of any municipal, county, or state law enforcement agency from stopping, arresting, or detaining a person based solely on an individual's race or ethnicity. The Law established a right for individuals to file racial profiling complaints. The Oklahoma Human Rights Commission has adopted procedures for filing racial profiling complaints. (See attachment #1)

RIGHT TO FILE COMPLAINT

Any person who is stopped or arrested by an officer of any municipal, county or state law enforcement agency and who believes the stop or arrest was racial profiling, that person may file a complaint with the Oklahoma Human Rights Commission and may also file a complaint with the district attorney in the county where the stop or arrest occurred.

WHO MAY FILE A RACIAL PROFILING COMPLAINT

Any person who was stopped or arrested by any officer and believes the stop or arrest was racial profiling may file a complaint.

COMPLAINT FORM

The official form on which to file a racial profiling complaint is Oklahoma Human Rights Commission form RPOHRC. (See attachment #2)

PLACE TO FILE COMPLAINT

A racial profiling complaint may be filed with the Oklahoma Human Rights Commission and also with the district attorney.

METHOD OF FILING COMPLAINT

A racial profiling complaint may be filed with the Oklahoma Human Rights Commission and the district attorney by completing Commission form RPOHRC. A complaint may also be filed with the district attorney by checking the appropriate box on Oklahoma Human Rights Commission's complaint form. The complainant or his/her representative shall sign and date the form upon completion and mail or personally deliver it to the Oklahoma Human Rights Commission.

RACIAL PROFILING COMPLAINTS RECEIVED, FILED AND OTHERWISE CLOSED FOR CALENDER YEAR 2010

The Oklahoma Human Rights Commission received and filed one (1) racial profiling complaint during calendar year 2010. The filed complaint alleged ethnicity as the basis for the racial profiling.

The complaint received by the Oklahoma Human Rights Commission during calendar year 2010 was filed and forwarded to the appropriate law enforcement agency for investigation. The law enforcement agency reported they had investigated the complaint and had found no racial profiling.

The Oklahoma Human Rights Commission has two offices where racial profiling complaints may be filed. The addresses and contact information of the offices are as follows:
