Purpose

The purpose of the Grade 8 U.S. History: Creating the Foundation, Formation, and Transformation of the American Nation, 1754-1877, test is to measure Oklahoma students' level of proficiency. On this test, students are required to respond to a variety of items linked to the eighth-grade U.S. History content standards identified in the Oklahoma Academic Standards (OAS). Each U.S. History Test form tests each identified content standard and objective listed below. The following standards and objectives are intended to summarize the knowledge as identified in Oklahoma Academic Standards.

Test Structure, Format, and Scoring

The Oklahoma Core Curriculum Tests consist of multiple-choice items. Each multiple-choice item is scored as correct or incorrect. The student's raw score is converted to a scaled score using the number correct method. Of the total items, 10 items are field-test items and do not contribute to the student's scaled score.

| Content Assessment | Total Items | Total Operational Items | Total Field Test Items |
|---------------------------|--------------------|--------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Mathematics | 50 | 50 | |
| Reading | 50 | 50 | |
| Science | 55 | 45 | 10 |
| U.S. History | 60 | 50 | 10 |

Test Alignment with Oklahoma Academic Standards

| Criteria for Aligning the Test with the Oklahoma Academic Standards Standards and Objectives |
| 1. Categorical Concurrence The test is constructed so that there are at least six items measuring each OAS standard. The number of items is based on estimating the number of items that could produce a reasonably reliable estimate of a student's mastery of the content measured. |
| 2. Depth of Knowledge Consistency The test is constructed using items from a variety of Depth of Knowledge levels that are consistent with the processes students need in order to demonstrate proficiency for each OAS objective. |
| 3. Range of Knowledge Correspondence The test is constructed so that at least 75% of the objectives for an OAS standard have at least one corresponding assessment item. |
| 4. Balance of Representation The test is constructed according to the Test Blueprint which reflects the degree of representation given on the test to each OAS standard and/or OAS objective in terms of the percent of total test items measuring each standard and the number of test items measuring each standard and/or objective. The test construction shall yield a balance of representation with an index of 0.7 or higher of assessed objectives related to a standard. |
| 5. Source of Challenge Each test item is constructed in such a way that the major cognitive demand comes directly from the targeted OAS objective or OAS concept being assessed, not from specialized knowledge or cultural background that the test-taker may bring to the testing situation. |

Test Blueprints
School Year 2013-2014

The Test Blueprint reflects the degree to which each standard and objective of the Oklahoma Academic Standards is represented on the test. The overall distribution of field test items on a test form is intended to look as follows:

| Standards and Objectives | Ideal Number of Items | Ideal Percentage of Items |
|---|-----------------------|---------------------------|
| 1.0 Causes and events of the American Revolution | 8 | 16% |
| 1.1, 1.2 Consequences of the French & Indian War, British Imperial Policies | 4 | |
| 1.3, 1.4, 1.5 Ideological War, Declaration of Independence's Grievances, Ideals, and Social Contract Selection | 4 | |
| 2.0 The Revolutionary Era | 6 | 12% |
| 2.1, 2.2, 2.3 Articles of Confederation , Motivations & Choices, Key Military & Diplomatic Events | 6 | |
| 3.0 Developing the American Government System | 10 | 20% |
| 3.1, 3.2, 3.3 Causes for the Constitutional Convention, and Ratification | 4-6 | |
| 3.4, 3.5 Constitutional Principles and the Bill of Rights | 4-6 | |
| 4.0 The Transformation of the United States to the Mid-1800s | 16 | 32% |
| 4.1 Major Events and Issues of Early Presidential Administrations | 4-6 | |
| 4.2, 4.6 Jacksonian Era and Westward Expansion | 4-6 | |
| 4.3, 4.4, 4.5 Sectional Economic Systems, African American Experiences, and Reform Movements/Leaders | 4-6 | |
| 5.0 Causes, Events, and Leadership in the Civil War | 10 | 20% |
| 5.1, 5.2 Causes of the Civil War: 1850s through the 1860 Presidential Election | 4-6 | |
| 5.3, 5.4 Advantages/Disadvantages, Leadership, Major Turning Points of the War | 4-6 | |
| Total Test | 50 | 100% |

- A minimum of 4 items is required to report results for an objective, and a minimum of 6 items is required to report a standard. While the actual numbers of items on the test may not match the blueprint exactly, each future test will move toward closer alignment with the ideal blueprint.
- Percentages are approximations and may result in a sum other than 100 due to rounding.

Depth of Knowledge Assessed by Test Items

The Oklahoma Core Curriculum Tests will, as closely as possible, reflect the following Depth of Knowledge distribution of items.

| Grades 3-5 | |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Depth of Knowledge | Percent of Items |
| Level 1—Recall and Reproduction | 20-25% |
| Level 2—Skills and Concepts | 65-70% |
| Level 3—Strategic Thinking | 5-15% |

| Grades 6-8 | |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Depth of Knowledge | Percent of Items |
| Level 1—Recall and Reproduction | 10-15% |
| Level 2—Skills and Concepts | 65-70% |
| Level 3—Strategic Thinking | 15-25% |

Level 1 (Recall and Reproduction) asks students to recall facts, terms, concepts, and trends, or to recognize or identify specific information contained in graphics. This level generally requires students to identify, list, or define. The items at this level usually ask the student to recall who, what, when, and where. Items that require students to “describe” and/or “explain” could be classified at Level 1 or Level 2, depending on what is to be described and/or explained. A Level 1 “describe and/or explain” would require students to recall, recite, or reproduce information. Items that require students to recognize or identify specific information contained in documents, excerpts, quotations, maps, charts, tables, graphs, or illustrations are generally Level 1.

Level 2 (Skills and Concepts) includes the engagement of some mental processing beyond recalling or reproducing a response. This level generally requires students to: contrast or compare people, places, events, and concepts; convert information from one form to another; give an example; classify or sort items into meaningful categories; draw simple conclusions; or describe, interpret, or explain issues and problems, patterns, reasons, cause and effect, significance or impact, relationships, points of view, or processes. A Level 2 “describe and/or explain” would require students to go beyond a description or explanation of recalled information to describe and/or explain a result or “how” or “why.”

Level 3 (Strategic and Extended Thinking) requires reasoning, using evidence, and a higher level of thinking than Level 1 and Level 2. Students will go beyond explaining or describing “how and why” to justifying the “how and why” through application and evidence. The cognitive demands at Level 3 are more complex and more abstract than Level 1 or Level 2. Items at Level 3 can include: drawing conclusions from multiple or complex stimuli; citing evidence; applying concepts to new situations; using concepts to solve problems; analyzing similarities and differences in issues and problems; proposing and evaluating solutions to problems; recognizing and explaining misconceptions; or making connections across time and place to explain a concept or “big idea.” Items may require planning, investigating, or developing. At this level, the cognitive demands may be high, the work may be very complex, and students may be required to: connect and relate ideas and concepts within the content area; analyze and synthesize information from multiple sources; examine and explain alternative perspectives across a variety of sources; and/or describe and illustrate how common themes and concepts are found across time and place. Students may make predictions with evidence as support.

Note — The descriptions are adapted from Review Background Information and Instructions, Standards and Assessment Alignment Analysis, CCSSO TILSA Alignment Study, May 21-24, 2001, Version 2.0.

Universal Test Design Considerations

Universal design, as applied to assessments, is a concept that allows the widest possible range of students to participate in assessments and may even reduce the need for accommodations and alternative assessments by expanding access to the tests themselves. In the Oklahoma Core Curriculum Tests, modifications have been made to some items that simplify and clarify instructions, and provide maximum readability, comprehensibility, and legibility. This includes such things as reduction of language load in content areas other than Reading, increased font size, fewer items per page, and boxed items to assist visual focus. Reading tests will have vocabulary at grade level. In all other tests, the vocabulary level will be below the grade being tested except for content words. Grades 3 and 4 will be one grade level below, and grades 5, 6, 7, and 8 will be two grade levels below. These modifications are evident in the sample items included in this document.

Testing Schedules

At grades 6, 7 and 8, each subject area test is meant to be administered in a separate session. Students may be given additional time if needed, but additional time will be given as an extension of the same testing period, not at a different time.

Multiple-Choice Item Guidelines

- All item stems clearly indicate what is expected in an item to help students focus on selecting a response.
- Each multiple-choice item has a stem (question, statement, or incomplete statement, and/or graphic component) and four answer (or completion) options, only one of which is correct.
- Multiple-choice item stems present a complete problem so that students know what to do before looking at the answer choices; students should not need to read all answer choices before knowing what is expected.
- Art incorporated within an item must be functional and assist students in determining the correct response.

In summary, test items assess whether students: understand relevant concepts and procedures; communicate their understandings effectively in content specific terms; approach problems; and develop viable solutions.

Stimulus Materials

Stimulus materials are the Oklahoma Academic Standards passages, graphs, models, figures, etc., that students must read and examine in order to respond to items. The following characteristics are necessary for stimulus materials:

1. When students are given information, data, or an experimental setup to evaluate, they should know the research question and the purpose of the research.
2. Tables, graphs, reading Oklahoma Academic Standards passages, and illustrations provide sufficient information for assessment of multiple standards.
3. Stimulus materials for a set of items may be a combination of multiple stimuli.
4. Information in stimulus materials is representative of concepts and principles described in Oklahoma Academic Standards.
5. For conceptual items, stimulus materials are necessary but not conceptually sufficient for student response.
6. There is a balance of graphic and textual stimulus materials within a test form. At least 50% of the items have appropriate pictorial and graphical representations. Graphs, tables, or figures are clearly associated with their intended items. Graphics appear either on the same page as the stimulus or on the facing page.
7. The stimuli avoid subject matter that might prompt emotional distress on the part of the students.
8. Permission to use stimuli from copyrighted material is obtained as necessary by the testing vendor.
9. Stimuli will not be longer than approximately 300 words.

General Considerations

It is necessary to create test items that are reliable, fair, and targeted to the Oklahoma Academic Standards listed on the following pages. There are some general considerations and procedures for effective item development. These considerations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Each test form contains items assessing standards and objectives listed in a test Blueprint for the specific grade and content area. In the Oklahoma Academic Standards document, asterisks have been used to identify standards and objectives that must be assessed by the local school district.
2. Test items that assess each standard are not limited to one particular type of response format. Each item begins with a stem that asks a question or poses a clear problem. Stems may include incomplete sentences in order to reduce unnecessary repetition of text.
3. Test items attempt to focus on content that is authentic and that grade-level students can relate to and understand.
4. Test items are worded precisely and clearly. The more focused an item, the more reliable and fair it will be, and the more likely all students will understand what is required of them.
5. All items are reviewed to eliminate language that is biased or is otherwise likely to disadvantage a particular group of students. That is, items do not display unfair representations of gender, race, ethnicity, disability, culture, or religion; nor do items contain elements that are offensive to any such groups.
6. All multiple-choice items, including the correct response and distractors, are similar in length and syntax. Students should not be able to rule out a wrong answer or identify a correct response solely because it looks or sounds different from the other answer choices. Distractors are created so that students reason their way to the correct answer rather than simply identify incorrect responses because of a distractor’s obviously inappropriate nature. Distractors should always be plausible (but incorrect) in the context of the item stem. Correct responses are reasonably distributed among A’s, B’s, C’s, and D’s. The distractors adopt the language and sense of the material in the selection. Test items focus on reading skills and comprehension strategies, avoiding measurement of a student’s feelings or values.

7. Items deal with issues and details that are of consequence in the stimulus and central to students’ understanding and interpretation of the stimulus.
8. To the greatest extent possible, no item or response choice clues the answer to any other item. No item stem or answer option provides clues to any other item’s answer, nor is the same fact of the Oklahoma Academic Standards assessed more than once, including the same vocabulary or technical term.
9. Test items are tied closely and particularly to the stimuli from which they derive, so that the impact of outside (prior) knowledge, while never wholly avoidable, is minimized.
10. The responses “Both of the above,” “All of the above,” “None of the above,” and “Neither of the above” are not used.
11. All stems are positively worded—avoiding the use of the word not.
12. The material presented is balanced, culturally diverse, well-written, and of interest to students. The stimuli and items are presented fairly in order to gain a true picture of students’ skills.
13. Across all forms, a balance of gender and active/ passive roles by gender is maintained.
14. No resource materials or calculators may be used by students during the test.

Vocabulary

No single source is available to determine the reading level of various words. Therefore, the appropriateness and difficulty of a word is determined in various ways. Vocabulary words are checked in the following: EDL Core Vocabularies in Reading, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies; Basic Reading Vocabularies; the Living Word; or other reliable readability sources. In addition to using the aforementioned printed resources to assist in creating vocabulary items, each vocabulary item must be approved by Oklahoma’s Content Review Committee. The committee, comprised of Oklahoma educators from across the state, reviews proposed vocabulary items for grade level appropriateness. Reading tests will have vocabulary at grade level. In all other tests, the vocabulary level will be below the grade being tested except for content words. Grades 3 and 4 will be one grade level below, and grades 5, 6, 7, and 8 will be two grade levels below.

All items developed using these specifications are reviewed by Oklahoma educators and approved by the Oklahoma State Department of Education. The distribution of newly developed items is based on content and process alignment, difficulty, cognitive ability, percentage of art/graphics, and grade-level appropriateness as determined by an annual Item Development Plan approved by the Oklahoma State Department of Education.

Overview of Item Specifications

For each OAS standard, item specifications are organized under the following headings:

- OAS Standard
- OAS Objective
- Item Specifications
- Emphasis
- Stimulus Attributes
- Format
- Content Limits
- Distractor Domain
- Sample Test Items

The headings “OAS Standard” and “OAS Objective” state the standard and objective being measured as found in the Grade 5 Social Studies section of the Oklahoma Academic Standards document.

The heading “Item Specifications” highlights important points about the items’ emphasis, stimulus attributes, format, content limits, distractor domain, and sample test items. Although it is sometimes possible to score single items for more than one concept, all items in these tests are written to address a single content standard as the primary concept.

Note about the Item Specifications and Sample Test Items:

With the exception of content limits, the item specifications give suggestions of what might be included but do not give an exhaustive list of what can be included. The sample test items are not intended to be definitive in nature or construction—the stimuli and the test items that follow them may differ from one test form to another, as may their presentations.

The two states differ in only one respect: Kentucky allows slaves, whereas Ohio has expelled them from its midst

Thus the traveler who lets the current of the Ohio [River] carry him to the point where it joins the Mississippi [River] navigates, as it were between freedom and servitude. . . . On the left bank of the river, the population is sparse. On the left bank of the river [Kentucky]. From time to time, a group of slaves can be seen ambling in their carefree way through half-cleared fields. The virgin forest never disappears for long. Society seems to slumber. Man appears idle. . . .

By contrast, the confused hum emanating from the right bank proclaims from afar the presence of industry. Rich harvests fill the fields. Elegant homes hint at the taste and fastidiousness of the farmers. Prosperity is apparent everywhere. Man seems rich and content: he is at work.

It is known to Senators who have served with me here, that I have for many years advocated, as an essential attribute of State sovereignty, the right of a State to secede from the Union. Therefore, if I had thought that Mississippi was acting without sufficient provocation, or without an existing necessity, I should still, under my theory of the Government, because of my allegiance to the State of which I am a citizen, have been bound by her action. . . A great man . . . advocated the doctrine of nullification, because it preserved the Union. . . . Secession belongs to a different class of remedies. It is to be justified upon the basis that the States are sovereign.

DOCUMENT B

I have heard with much concern of the many murders committed by the Indians...in the neighborhood of Pittsburg[h]. Hostilities so extensive [indicate]...a formidable Combination of that kind of enemy. . .

It might be premature to speak of terms of peace but if events will justify it, the only condition with the Shawnees should be their removal beyond the Mississippi or the [Great] Lakes, and with the other tribes whatever may most effectually secure their observation of the treaty. . . . The business will more be done so as not to have to repeat it again and that instead of making peace on their Application you will only make it after such as shall be felt and remembered by them as long as they a nation.

—Thomas Jefferson, Letter to Lieutenant of Berkeley County, Virginia, 1780

DOCUMENT C

The consequences of a speedy removal will be important to the United States, to individual States, and to the Indians themselves. . . . It will place a dense and civilized population in large tracts of country now occupied by a few savage hunters. By opening the whole territory between Tennessee on the north and Louisiana on the south to the settlement of the whites it will incalculably strengthen the southwestern frontier and render the adjacent States strong enough to repel future invasions without remote aid. . . . It will separate the Indians from immediate contact with settlements of whites; free them from the power of the States. . . .

What good man would prefer a country covered with forests and ranged by a few thousand savages to our extensive Republic, studded with cities, towns, and prosperous farms embellished with all the improvements which art can devise or industry execute, occupied by more than 12,000,000 happy people, and filled with all the blessings of liberty, civilization and religion?
