

RADIO :30

TALENT: MALE 17 yrs old. Caucasian Male.

SFX: Squeaks of tennis shoes on basketball court, whistles, muffled voices of boys shooting hoops.

A few years ago, our phone was ringing off the hook. College recruiters from all over were calling to talk to my brother about scholarships and playing ball. Then he started smoking. Didn't take long before he was slowing up on the court, trying to catch his breath. And when he got slower, so did the phone calls. That's when I decided, it won't happen twice in our family.

SFX: Swoosh of basketball going through net.

Tobacco stops with me.