

“MOM”

RADIO :30

TALENT: Teenage boy and girl

Boy: When dad left mom had to get a second job.

Girl: Her job at the bar has been just enough to get us by.

Boy: Now the doctor tells her she's got heart disease and could have a heart attack.

Girl: Something about second hand smoke at work.

Boy: Mom never smoked.

Girl: She's trying to find another job but it's not that easy.

Voiceover: Each year secondhand smoke kills 46,000 non-smokers by causing heart disease. Think workers aren't harmed by secondhand smoke? Think again. Visit stopswithme.com

Boy: Our mom doesn't deserve this.

Girl: Tobacco stops with me.

Boy: and me.
