Scott Meacham to Take Oath of Office

OKLAHOMA CITY — Scott Meacham will become the 17th State Treasurer of Oklahoma at 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, June 1st, when he is administered the oath of office by Oklahoma Supreme Court Chief Justice Joseph Watt in the Supreme Court's courtroom on the second floor of the State Capitol.

Meacham, currently Director of the Office of State Finance, was appointed treasurer by Governor Brad Henry following the resignation of Robert Butkin to become Dean of the University of Tulsa School of Law.

Meacham will continue to serve on the governor's cabinet as Secretary of Finance and Revenue.
