

2010 OKLAHOMA CAPITAL DEFENSE TRAINING CONFERENCE

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

The 2010 Oklahoma Capital Defense Training Conference will be utilizing the “bring your own case” format. This format will involve the open and frank discussion of both pending and previous cases by and among conference participants and conference faculty members. Information pertaining to cases will necessarily reflect the thoughts, opinions, impressions and strategies with respect to previous and ongoing cases and, as such, is protected under the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Because these discussions will involve information protected by the attorney-client privilege and the work product doctrine, I hereby acknowledge that confidential materials and information provided or discussed in this training conference pertaining to pending or previous cases shall not be disclosed except during the course of the conference for training purposes. By signing this pledge, I agree to abide by this understanding and keep all privileged information confidential. My signature also indicates that I am involved exclusively in the defense of persons accused in criminal cases.

---

Name (please print)

---

Signature

---

Date

This project was supported by Grant No. 2009-CP-BX-0008 awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance. The Bureau of Justice Assistance is a component of the Office of Justice Programs, which also includes the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the National Institute of Justice, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the SMART Office, and the Office for Victims of Crime. Points of view or opinions in this document are those of the author and do not represent the official position or policies of the United States Department of Justice.