Dr. Michael Mayer presents

Rethinking Training for the 21st Century

Prior to joining Community Resource Alliance, Senior Partner, Dr. Michael "Mike" Mayer was the Executive Director of the Institute on Complex Disabilities for 12 years. He has been providing cutting-edge training and consultation services internationally since 1990. His classes offer critical issues for training the 21st century, with his unique approach, compassionate drive, enlightening and dynamic presentations he has led over 400 local, state, and national organizations to pursue his penetrating and enriching training. Dr. Mayer has trained instructors in 13 countries and 48 states, training over 50,000 personnel all over the world, including the United States, Canada, the Middle East, the Pacific Rim, Africa, Asia, and Europe.

Dr. Mayer has developed numerous curricula, assessment tools, and protocols that are used throughout the world to assist in the diagnosis, treatment, support planning, service evaluation, and training for people who have complex disabilities. Authored and edited over 50 publications including books, chapters, and articles and he has served on the faculty of several colleges, universities, institutes, international forums, and boards of directors.

His fun approach in this interactive session will address the numerous issues that are associated with getting information into the head, motivating the heart, and getting the hands to do the right things so that we can get the outcomes we desire. This is not a traditional "presentation" but rather a fun, high energy, very interactive class.
