

DATE: March 10, 2008
TO: All Pre-License and Post Instructors
FROM: Patricia Wheeler, Education & Licensing Program Director
SUBJECT: Spring Instructor Workshop

You are cordially invited to attend the Oklahoma Real Estate Commissions Spring Instructor Workshop; please keep in mind that each pre-license and post license instructor is required to attend a Commission directed Instructor Renewal Course every twelve months.

Amy Chorew presenting Train the Trainer: Technology Tools

Amy Chorew is Senior National Trainer and Senior National Consultant for Matthew Ferrara & Company. Since joining the company in 2000, Amy has delivered more than 500 seminars nation-wide in more than 30 states. A REALTOR® since 1981, her experience includes, acting as Marketing Director for some of Connecticut's most prestigious real estate companies, and managing the operations for a real estate developer in Connecticut. Amy has more than a decade of experience in the technology training industry. She has served on the Technology Committee for the Real Estate Educators Association (REEA). Amy is currently developing and deploying learning management systems (LMS) for REALTOR associations and schools across America. Amy connects with her audience, makes complicated technology simple, and teaches the 'why' so it is easy to understand the 'how'. She is funny, interactive and her students always leave with new knowledge that they are anxious to implement. Her background in real estate makes her classes all the more relevant. Her depth of knowledge is amazing. Amy takes an incredibly complex subject like technology and makes it very user-friendly.
