858-352. Written brokerage agreement. A broker may enter into a written brokerage agreement to provide services as either a single-party broker or a transaction broker. If a broker does not enter into a written brokerage agreement with a party, the broker shall perform services only as a transaction broker. All brokerage agreements shall be deemed to incorporate as material terms the duties and responsibilities set forth in subsection A of Section 858-353 or subsection B of Section 858-354 of this title, based upon whether the relationship established by the brokerage agreement is a transaction broker relationship or single-party broker relationship.

858-353. Transaction broker—Duties and responsibilities.

7. To comply with all requirements of the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code and all applicable statutes and rules.

B. Except as provided in Section 858-358 of this title, such duties and responsibilities set forth in this section shall be performed by a transaction broker if such duties and responsibilities relate to the steps of the transaction which occur while there is a broker relationship.

C. Nothing in this section requires or prohibits a transaction broker from charging a separate fee or other compensation for each duty or other services provided during a transaction.

D. If a transaction broker intends to perform fewer services than those required to complete a transaction, written disclosure shall be provided to the party for whom the broker is providing services. Such disclosure shall include a description of those steps in the transaction for which the broker will not perform services, and also state that a broker assisting the other party in the transaction is not required to provide assistance with these steps in any manner.

858-354. Single-party broker—Duties and responsibilities.

A. A broker shall enter into a written brokerage agreement prior to providing services as a single-party broker, which shall be deemed to include, and which may not abrogate or waive, the mandatory duties and responsibilities set forth in this section.

- B. The single-party broker shall have the following duties and responsibilities:
1. To treat all parties with honesty and exercise reasonable skill and care;

 9. To obey the specific directions of the party for whom the single-party broker is performing services that are not contrary to applicable statutes and rules or contrary to the terms of a contract between the parties to the transaction; and
 10. To comply with all requirements of the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code and all applicable statutes and rules.

C. In the event a broker who is a single-party broker for a buyer or a tenant receives a fee or compensation based on a selling price or lease cost of a transaction, such receipt does not constitute a breach of duty or obligation to the buyer or tenant if fully disclosed to the buyer or tenant in the written brokerage agreement.

D. Except as provided in Section 858-358 of this title, such duties and responsibilities set forth in this section shall be performed by a single-party broker if such duties and responsibilities relate to the steps of the transaction which occur while there is a broker relationship.

E. Nothing in this section requires or prohibits a single-party broker from charging a separate fee or other compensation for each duty or other services provided during a transaction.

F. If a single-party broker intends to perform fewer services than those required to complete a transaction, written disclosure shall be provided to the party for whom the broker is providing services. Such disclosure shall include a description of those steps in the transaction for which the broker will not perform services, and also state that the broker assisting the other party in the transaction is not required to provide assistance with these steps in any manner.

- A. When assisting one party to a transaction, a broker shall enter into one of the following relationships:
1. As a transaction broker without a written brokerage agreement;
 2. As a transaction broker through a written brokerage agreement; or
 3. As a single-party broker through a written brokerage agreement.
- B. When assisting both parties to a transaction, a broker may enter into the following relationships:
1. As a transaction broker for both parties;
 2. As a single-party broker for one party and as a transaction broker for the other party. In this event, a broker shall disclose in writing to the party for whom the broker is providing services as a transaction broker, the difference between a transaction broker and a single-party broker, and that the broker is a single-party broker for the other party and performs services for the benefit of the other party in the transaction; or
 3. As a transaction broker where the broker has previously entered into a written brokerage agreement to provide services as a single-party broker for both parties. In this event, the broker shall obtain the written consent of each party before the broker begins to perform services as a transaction broker. The written consent may be included in the written brokerage agreement or in a separate document and shall contain the following information:
 - a. a description of the transaction or type of transactions that might occur in which the single-party broker seeks to obtain consent to become a transaction broker,

- b. a statement that in such transactions the single-party broker would perform services for more than one party whose interest could be different or even adverse and that such transactions require the broker to seek the consent of each party to such transactions to permit a change in the brokerage relationship,
- c. a statement that by giving consent in such transactions:
 - (1) the party will allow the broker to change the broker's relationship from performing services as a single-party broker to performing services as a transaction broker,
 - (2) the broker will no longer provide services for the benefit of the party, but may only assist in such transactions,
 - (3) the broker will not be obligated to obey the specific directions of the party but will assist all parties to such transactions,
 - (4) the party will not be vicariously liable for the acts of the broker and associated associates, and
 - (5) the broker's obligation to keep confidential information received from the party confidential is not affected,
- d. a statement that the party is not required to consent to the change in the brokerage relationships in such transactions and may seek independent advice,
- e. a statement that the consent of the party to change the brokerage relationship in such transactions has been given voluntarily and that the written consent has been read and understood by the party, and
- f. a statement that the party authorizes the broker to change the brokerage relationship in such transactions and to assist all parties to such transactions as a transaction broker.

C. 1. If neither party gives consent as described in paragraph 3 of subsection B of this section, the broker shall withdraw from providing services to all but one party to a transaction. If the broker refers the party for whom the broker is no longer providing services to another broker, the broker shall not receive a fee for referring the party unless written disclosure is made to all parties.

2. If only one party gives consent as described in paragraph 3 of subsection B of this section, the broker may act as a transaction broker for the consenting party and continue to act as a single-party broker for the nonconsenting party. In this event, the broker shall disclose in writing to the consenting party that the broker remains a single-party broker for the nonconsenting party and performs services for the benefit of the nonconsenting party.

D. A broker may cooperate with other brokers in a transaction. Under Sections 858-351 through 858-363 of this act, a broker shall not be an agent, subagent, or dual agent and an offer of subagency shall not be made to other brokers.

858-356. Disclosures—Confirmation in writing.

A. Prior to the signing by a party of a contract to purchase, lease, option or exchange real estate, a broker who is performing services as a transaction broker without a written brokerage agreement shall describe and disclose in writing the broker's role to the party.

B. Prior to entering into a written brokerage agreement as either a transaction broker or single-party broker, the broker shall describe and disclose in writing the broker's relationship to the party.

C. A transaction broker shall disclose to the party for whom the transaction broker is providing services that the party is not vicariously liable for the acts or omissions of the transaction broker.

D. A single-party broker shall disclose to the party for whom the single-party broker is providing services that the party may be vicariously liable for the acts or omissions of a single-party broker.

E. The disclosure required by this section and the consent required by Section 858-355 of this act must be confirmed by each party in writing in a separate provision, incorporated in or attached to the contract to purchase, lease, option, or exchange real estate. In those cases where a broker is involved in a transaction but does not prepare the contract to purchase, lease, option, or exchange real estate, compliance with the disclosure requirements must be documented by the broker.

858-357. Confidential information. The following information shall be considered confidential and shall not be disclosed by a broker without the consent of the party disclosing the information unless consent to disclosure is granted by the party disclosing the information, the disclosure is required by law, or the information is made public or becomes public as the result of actions from a source other than the broker:

- 1. That a party is willing to pay more or accept less than what is being offered;
- 2. That a party is willing to agree to financing terms that are different from those offered; and
- 3. The motivating factors of the party purchasing, selling, leasing, optioning, or exchanging the property.

858-358. Duties of broker following termination, expiration, or completion of performance. Except as may be provided in a written brokerage agreement between the broker and a party to a transaction, the broker owes no further duties or responsibilities to the party after termination, expiration, or completion of performance of the transaction, except:

1. To account for all monies and property relating to the transaction; and
2. To keep confidential all confidential information received by the broker during the broker's relationship with a party.

858-359. Payment to broker not determinative of relationship. The payment or promise of payment or compensation by a party to a broker does not determine what relationship, if any, has been established between the broker and a party to a transaction.

858-360. Abrogation of common law principles of agency—Remedies cumulative. The duties and responsibilities of a broker specified in Sections 858-351 through 858-363 of this act shall replace and abrogate the fiduciary or other duties of a broker to a party based on common law principles of agency. The remedies at law and equity supplement the provisions of Sections 858-351 through 858-363 of this act.

858-361. Use of word "agent" in trade name. A real estate broker is permitted under the provisions of Sections 858-351 through 858-363 of this act to use the word "agent" in a trade name.

858-362. Vicarious liability for acts or omissions of real estate licensee. A party to a real estate transaction shall not be vicariously liable for the acts or omissions of a real estate licensee who is providing services as a transaction broker under Section 858-351 through 858-363 of this act.

858-363. Associates of real estate broker—Authority. Each broker associate, sales associate, and provisional sales associate shall be associated with a real estate broker. A real estate broker may authorize associates to provide brokerage services in the name of the real estate broker as permitted under the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code, which may include the execution of written agreements; however, such associates shall not refer to themselves as a broker.

 4. If fines are not paid in full by the licensee within thirty (30) days of the notification by the Commission of the order, the fines shall double and the licensee shall have an additional thirty-day period. If the doubled fine is not paid within the additional thirty-day period, the license shall automatically be revoked; and
 5. All monies received by the Commission as a result of the imposition of the administrative fine provided for in this section shall be deposited in the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund, created pursuant to Section 858-601 of this title.

B. The administrative fines authorized by this section may be in addition to any other criminal penalties or civil actions provided for by law.

A. The fact or suspicion that real estate might be or is psychologically impacted, such impact being the result of facts or suspicions, including but not limited to:

1. that an occupant of the real estate is, or was at any time suspected to be infected, or has been infected, with Human Immunodeficiency Virus or diagnosed with Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, or other disease which has been determined by medical evidence to be highly unlikely to be transmitted through the occupancy of a dwelling place; or

C. Notwithstanding the fact that this information is not a material defect or fact, in the event that a purchaser or lessee, who is in the process of making a bona fide offer, advises the licensee assisting the owner, in writing, that knowledge of such factor is important to the person's decision to purchase or lease the property, the licensee shall make inquiry of the owner and report any findings to the purchaser or lessee with the consent of the owner and subject to and consistent with applicable laws of privacy; provided further, if the owner refuses to disclose, the licensee assisting the owner shall so advise the purchaser or lessee.

§858-514. Registered sex offenders—No duty to provide notice regarding.

The provisions of the Sex Offenders Registration Act, Section 581 et seq. of Title 57 of the Oklahoma Statutes, shall not be construed as imposing a duty upon a person licensed under the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code to disclose any information regarding an offender required to register under such provision.

EDUCATION AND RECOVERY FUND

§858-601. Creation—Status—Appropriation—Expenditures—Use of funds—Eligibility to recover.

A. There is hereby created in the State Treasury a revolving fund for the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission to be designated "Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund." The fund shall consist of monies received by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission as fees assessed for the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund under the provisions of this act. The revolving fund shall be a continuing fund not subject to fiscal year limitations and shall be under the administrative direction of the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission. The Oklahoma Real Estate Commission may invest all or part of the monies of the fund in securities offered through the "Oklahoma State Treasurer's Cash Management Program." Any interest or dividends accruing from the securities and any monies generated at the time of redemption of the securities shall be deposited in the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund. All monies accruing to the credit of the fund are hereby appropriated and may be budgeted and expended by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission for the purposes specified in Section 858-605 of this title.

Expenditures from said fund shall be made pursuant to the laws of this state and the statutes relating to the said Commission, and without legislative appropriation. Warrants for expenditures from said fund shall be drawn by the State Treasurer, based on claims signed by an authorized employee or employees of the said Commission and approved for payment by the Director of State Finance.

B. Monies in the fund shall be used to reimburse any claimant who has been awarded a judgment, subject to subsection C of this section, by a court of competent jurisdiction to have suffered monetary damages by an Oklahoma real estate licensee in any transaction for which a license is required under the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code because of an act constituting a violation of the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code.

C. In determining a claimant's eligibility to recover from the fund, the Commission may conduct an independent review of the merits, findings and damages involved in the underlying action and may conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine if a claim is eligible for recovery from the fund and the amount of damages awarded are due to an act constituting a violation of the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code.

§858-602. Additional Fee—Disposition.

A. An additional, nonrefundable fee as promulgated by rule by the Commission shall be added to and payable with the license fee for both new licenses and renewals of licenses for each licensee as provided in Section 858-307.1 of this title. Such additional fee shall be deposited in the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund.

B. If a license is issued for a period of less than thirty-six (36) months, such additional fee shall be prorated to the nearest dollar and month.

C. If a real estate sales associate or provisional sales associate shall qualify for a license as a real estate broker, the additional fee for the remainder of the term shall be prorated to the nearest dollar and month and credited to the additional fee added to the payable with the real estate broker license fee.

D. At the close of each fiscal year, the Commission shall transfer into the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission Revolving Fund any money in excess of that amount required to be retained in the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund and that amount authorized to be expended as provided within this Code that is remaining in the Oklahoma Education and Recovery Fund and unexpended.

§858-603. Eligibility to recover from fund—Ineligibility.

A. Any claimant shall be eligible to seek recovery from the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund if the following conditions have been met:

1. An action has been filed in district court based upon a violation specified in the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code;

2. The cause of action accrued not more than two (2) years prior to the filing of the action;

3. At the commencement of an action, the party filing the action shall immediately notify the Commission to this effect in writing and provide the Commission with a file-stamped copy of the petition or affidavit. Said Commission shall have the right to enter an appearance, intervene in, defend, or take any action it may deem appropriate to protect the integrity of the Fund. The Commission may waive the notification requirement if it determines that the public interest is best served by the waiver, that is to best meet the ends of justice and that the claimant making application made a good faith effort to comply with the notification requirements;

4. Final judgment is received by the claimant upon such action;

5. The final judgment is enforced as provided by statute for enforcement of judgments in other civil actions and that the amount realized was insufficient to satisfy the judgment; and

6. Any compensation recovered by the claimant from the judgment debtor, or from any other source for any monetary loss arising out of the cause of action, has been applied to the judgement awarded by the court.

B. A claimant shall not be qualified to make a claim for recovery from the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund, if:

1. The claimant is the spouse of the judgment debtor or a personal representative of such spouse;

2. The claimant is a licensee who acted in their own behalf in the transaction which is the subject of the claim; or

3. The claimant's claim is based upon a real estate transaction in which the claimant is, through their own action, jointly responsible for any resulting monetary loss with respect to the property owned or controlled by the claimant.

§858-604. Application for payment—Amount—Assignment of rights, etc.—Insufficient funds—Revocation of brokers license.

A. Any claimant who meets all of the conditions prescribed by this act may apply to the Commission for payment from the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund, in an amount equal to the unsatisfied portion of the claimant's judgment, which is actual or compensatory damages, or Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), whichever is less. The claimant is entitled to reimbursement for attorney fees reasonably incurred in the litigation not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the claimant's amount approved by the Commission. Attorney fees charged and received shall be documented, verified, and submitted with the claim. Court costs and other expenses shall not be recoverable from the fund.

B. Upon receipt by the claimant of the payment from the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund, the claimant assigns the claimant's right, title and interest in that portion of the judgment to the Commission which shall be subrogated up to the amount actually paid by the fund to the claimant or to the claimant and the claimant's attorney. Upon suit to collect upon a judgment, the claimant shall have priority over the fund. Any amount subsequently recovered on the judgment by the Commission, to the extent of the Commission's right, title and interest therein, shall be used to reimburse the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund.

C. Payments for claims arising out of the same transaction which constitutes a claimant's cause of action based upon a violation of the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code shall be limited in the aggregate of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) irrespective of the number of claimants or parcels of real estate involved in the transaction.

D. Payments for claims based upon judgments against any one licensee shall not exceed in the aggregate Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00).

E. If at any time the monies in the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund are insufficient to satisfy any valid claim, or portion thereof, the Commission shall satisfy such unpaid claim or portion thereof as soon as a sufficient amount of money has been deposited in the fund by collecting special levy from the members of the fund of an amount not to exceed Five Dollars ($5.00) each fiscal year. If the additional levy is not sufficient to pay all outstanding claims against the fund, the claims shall be paid as the money becomes available. Where there is more than one claim outstanding, the claims shall be paid in the order that they were approved.

F. Any claim against a corporation, association or partnership would be imputed to the managing broker(s) at the time the cause of action arose.

G. The license of said licensee, shall be automatically revoked upon the payment of any amount from the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund on a judgment against a licensee. The license shall not be considered for reinstatement until the licensee has repaid in full, plus interest at the rate of seven percent (7%) a year, the amount paid from the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund on the judgment against the licensee.

§858-605. Expenditure of funds.

At any time when the total amount of monies, deposited in the Oklahoma Real Estate Education and Recovery Fund exceeds Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00), the Commission in its discretion may expend such excess funds each fiscal year for the following purposes:

1. To promote the advancement of education in the field of real estate for the benefit of the general public and those licensed under the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code, but such promotion shall not be construed to allow advertising of this profession;
2. To underwrite educational seminars and other forms of educational projects for the benefit of real estate licensees;
3. To establish real estate courses at institutions of higher learning located in the state and accredited by the State Regents for Higher Education for the purpose of making such courses available to licensees and the general public; and
4. To contract for a particular educational project in the field of real estate to further the purposes of the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code.

The purpose of such a review by the Commission shall be to determine whether or not such examination was correctly graded.

(e) Application valid for one year. The original examination application shall be valid for one (1) year from date of filing. A request to write an examination submitted more than one (1) year from the most recent original application filing must be accompanied by a new original application form.

A student who enrolls in an entity which offers a Commission approved course may not transfer credit for a course or courses completed in that series to another entity unless the new entity offers the identical series of courses.
- (e) Course examinations. Every approved prelicense and postlicense course offering shall conclude with an end-of-course examination consisting of no less than one hundred and thirty (130) questions administered by the approved entity. (1) Each course shall contain suitable learning objectives.

(2) Overview statements must be included for each course providing a quick preview of what is contained in the offering.

(3) An answer key for all examinations must be provided to the Commission with each course application. An answer key for examinations may not be included in any course materials provided to the student.

(4) From the date of enrollment, the course shall have a validity period of six (6) months in which to allow successful completion to be attained.

Once the licensee corrects the problem with the appropriate regulatory agency and such agency authorizes the issuance of an active license, the Commission will then, upon receipt of an activation fee and required documentation, initiate the issuance of an active license within the respective license term.

(p) On and after August 1, 2001, in the event an active sales associate within six (6) months of obtaining their original license, reinstatement or license renewal qualifies for an inactive broker license, the Commission shall not refund the difference in the license fees.

(b) Multiple change requests on same license. In the event a licensee's request involves more than one change to the license at the same time, and each individual change requires a separate fee elsewhere in the rules of this Chapter, the Commission shall only require that one fee be charged to reissue the license if the

Filed shall mean the date of the United States postal service postmark or the date personal delivery is made to the Commission office. The licensee or firm shall return the license certificate to the Commission office along with the request for such name change. Upon any request for a change of name there shall be paid a fee to the Commission of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each license to be changed. The Commission may require additional documents as may reasonably be required by the Secretary-Treasurer.

(b) Group name changes. Under certain circumstances as determined by the Commission, the Commission may place a cap of Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00) on group transactions requesting licenses to be reissued.  - (2) Records, with the exception of trust account records, may be transferred at any time to an alternative media for the remaining required retention time.
 - (3) After documents are converted to alternative media, a quality assurance check shall be done to ensure that every document was imaged and can be reproduced in a legible and readable condition on a display device.
 - (4) After the quality assurance check is completed, the original documents may be destroyed.
 - (5) A broker shall maintain the alternative media and a means of viewing and retrieving records, and shall provide a true, correct and legible paper copy to the Commission upon request.
 - (6) A broker shall store copies of the alternative media and the equipment used to read the media in an environment and at a level of quality conducive to maintain the ability to reproduce the media throughout the retention period. Reproduce means a process in which a document can be converted from the alternative media to a paper copy that is legible and able to be read.

Upon final disbursements of funds the broker is required to close the account and notify the Commission in writing that the account is closed.

(5) In the event the responsible broker is unable to continue to maintain the funds and/or pending contracts, funds and/or pending contracts may be transferred to another authorized broker, entity or legal representative until consummation and proper disbursement of funds. In this event, the broker must submit a request in writing to the Commission for approval to transfer the contracts and/or funds. Upon written approval by the Commission, the broker must secure approval and obtain new agreements from all parties for transfer of the contracts and/or funds.

(6) If funds, items and/or contracts are transferred to another authorized broker, entity or legal representative and approved by the Commission, the broker transferring such shall be required to compile a record of the following, retain a copy for his or her file and give a copy to the receiving authorized broker, entity or legal representative:

(b) In the absence of a pending civil action and upon the passage of thirty (30) days from the date of final termination of the contract, it shall not be considered grounds for disciplinary action by the Commission against a broker for a broker to disburse escrow monies or valuables to either purchaser or seller when the disbursement has been based on a good faith decision by the broker that the opposite party has failed to perform as agreed, such disbursement to be made, however, only after fifteen (15) days written notice to all parties concerned setting forth the broker's proposed action.
