Oklahoma Real Estate Commission Begins National Search for Executive Director

OKLAHOMA CITY – September 12, 2012 – The Oklahoma Real Estate Commission begins a national search for a new Executive Director. OREC's current Executive Director, Anne M. Woody, has announced her upcoming retirement. The Oklahoma Real Estate Commission has been under the leadership of only four Executive Director's since its creation by the Oklahoma Legislature in 1950. The Oklahoma Real Estate Commission is a state agency which licenses and regulates real estate licensees and activities in the State of Oklahoma. Those interested in applying for the position should see the job posting at www.orec.ok.gov or at www.jobaps.com/ok/ under Executive Recruitment.
