LPCs shall be familiar with related standardization and proper application and security of any technique utilized. LPCs using computer-based test interpretations shall be trained in the construct being measured and the specific instrument being used prior to using this type of computer application. LPCs shall ensure the proper use of assessment techniques by persons under their supervision.

(c) Specialty. LPCs shall not represent themselves as specialists in any aspect of counseling, unless so designated by the Board.

(e) Impairment. LPCs shall not offer or render professional services when such services may be impaired by a personal physical, mental or emotional condition(s). LPCs shall seek assistance for any such personal problem(s) with their physical, mental or emotional condition, and, if necessary, limit, suspend, or terminate their professional activities. If an LPC possesses a bias, disposition, attitude, moral persuasion or other similar condition that limits his or her ability to recommend a course of treatment or decision-making that is indicated, and under such circumstances where all other treatment and decision options are contra-indicated, then in that event the LPC shall not undertake to provide counseling and will terminate the counseling relationship in accordance with these rules.

(f) Knowledge of impairment. If a LPC becomes aware that a LPC or LPC candidate is violating an obligation described in Section 310:405-3-2(e), the LPC must, within a reasonable time, report the situation to the Department in accordance with Section 310:405-31-2.

(1) LPC candidates and licensees must demonstrate competence by certification, education or experience in the subject matter relevant to the issues in question and must certify in writing that they have complied with all

The copy(ies) must be provided at least ten (10) days prior to the report’s publication unless otherwise required by law or court order.

(5) LPC candidates and licensees must base their findings and conclusions only upon information gained by appropriate and lawful means. Fact witness testimony means evidentiary statements that are limited to direct observations made by the LPC candidate or licensee and shall not include conclusions, opinions or recommendations.

When the LPC reasonably suspects that he or she has inadvertently entered into a dual relationship the LPC shall record that fact in the records of the affected client(s) and take reasonable steps to eliminate the source or agent creating or causing the dual relationship. If the dual relationship cannot be prevented or eliminated and the LPC cannot readily refer the client to another counselor or other professional, the LPC shall complete one or more of the following measures as necessary to prevent the exploitation of the client and/or the impairment of the LPC's professional judgment:

1. Fully disclose the circumstances of the dual relationship to the client and secure the client's written consent to continue providing counseling;

(b) Bartering. LPCs may participate in bartering for tangible goods only if the relationship is not exploitive, if the client requests it, if a clear written contract is established and if such arrangements are an accepted practice among professionals in the community.

(c) Tangible goods. LPCs shall not barter for services rendered by the client. Only tangible goods, at fair market value, may be accepted by the counselor in lieu of money for counseling services.

   (1) knowingly make a false statement of material fact;
   (2) fail to disclose a fact necessary to correct a misapprehension known by the LPC, LPC candidate or applicant for licensure to have arisen in the application or the matter under investigation; or
   (3) fail to respond to a demand for information made by the Department or any designated representative thereof, unless a request for a protective order has been first made pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 2 of this title, in which case the LPC, LPC candidate or applicant may await the decision concerning the issuance or denial of a protective order before making any response.

310:405-3-4.1. Clinical responsibility to supervisees

(a) LPCs shall not exploit the trust and dependency of supervisees.

(b) LPCs are cognizant of their potentially influential position with respect to supervisees, and shall not exploit the trust and dependency of such persons. LPCs, therefore, shall avoid dual relationships that impair their professional judgment or increase the risk of exploitation. Examples of such dual relationships include, but are not limited to, provision of counseling to supervisees, and business or close personal relationships with supervisees. Sexual intimacy with current supervisees is prohibited.

(c) LPCs shall not permit supervisees to perform or to hold themselves out as competent to perform professional services beyond their training, level of experience, and competence.

(d) LPCs shall not disclose supervisee confidences to anyone, except:

Professional credentials include graduate degrees in counseling or closely related mental health fields, accreditation of graduate programs, national voluntary certifications, government-issued certifications or licenses, or any other credential that might indicate to the public the LPCs additional knowledge or expertise in counseling.

(c) The use of doctoral degrees and the title "Doctor". An LPC may use the doctoral degree and the title "Doctor" in advertising, practice and status as a counselor, if the doctoral degree is in counseling or a closely related mental health field, and if the degree was granted by a regionally accredited college or university recognized by the United States Department of Education.
