In 2018 the law enforcement community lost 148 officers in the line of duty. Approximately one third of these officers were killed by gunfire. Over one half of the officers killed by gunfire were killed by ambush. The number of officers ambushed and killed has exponentially risen over the last 6 years by almost 600%. This is a statistic that continues to climb. An additional statistic, more vast than this, is law enforcement deaths by suicide. There were 158 officer lives that were taken by suicide in 2018.

N&F Training was founded on the phrase, “Prepare you for the unknown, for when the unthinkable happens.” Our company also wants to stress the importance of speaking up and asking for help is ok, you are never alone. N&F Training is not only going to prepare you to survive in an ambush situation; We will prepare you to survive away from the job. Listed below is the training we offer to best suit your department’s needs, but more importantly the individual officers’ needs:
