
LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Domestic Violence Basics: Law Enforcement Response, Investigation, and Report Writing

Who: All law enforcement officers including 911 personnel

What: Basic training for law enforcement officers on the dynamics of domestic violence, the most effective and safe ways to respond to domestic calls, investigation strategies, and preparation of reports that will improve the prosecution of domestic violence cases.

When: Thursday, December 10, 2009, from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm

Where: Oklahoma Wesleyan University, Bartlesville, OK

☆ Approved for 7.0 hours of CLEET credit ☆

☆ Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) completion certificates available ☆

Please direct questions about the training to Melissa Blanton at 405-264-5008.

PRE-REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED, BUT APPRECIATED!

Please complete and FAX registration information to:

405-264-5095

Attn: Melissa Blanton

NAME
TITLE
AGENCY
ADDRESS
PHONE #
E-MAIL
CLEET #

Sponsored By:
Oklahoma District Attorneys Council
Federal Grants Division
