Domestic Violence I: Investigation / Report Writing is a comprehensive review of fundamental report writing taught by a veteran, full time, domestic violence officer. This course has an evidence based investigation emphasis. Topics include establishing primary aggressor, officer's liability, excited utterances, proper reporting procedures, and effective evidence gathering. An important emphasis is placed on recognizing signs of domestic violence, including the physical evidence.

This course is CLEET certified for 8 hours, including 1 hour of mental health credit.
