

Riparian Vegetation Workshop

Topics include:

Importance of riparian vegetation

Vegetation selection

Proper planting techniques

Presenters include Eve Brantley, Auburn University; John Mustain, Natural Resource Conservation Service and Greg Jennings, Jennings Environmental

Each afternoon will include a hands-on segment so dress for the outdoors and bring gloves!

March 19 - 20, 2013 | 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Tahlequah Municipal Armory

100 S. Water Ave. | Tahlequah, OK

Registration is free but is limited to the first 50 people, so register early!
Email Gina Levesque at gina.levesque@conservation.ok.gov by Friday March 1, 2013 to register.

Lunch is provided courtesy of Save the Illinois River and War Eagle Floats

