

Prosecutor Boot Camp

The District Attorneys Council and the Oklahoma District Attorneys Association welcomed 29 Oklahoma prosecutors to its annual Prosecutor Boot Camp, held April 29 - May 1, 2015, at the Wes Watkins Center in Stillwater, Oklahoma.

The conference provided Assistant District Attorneys with a unique learning environment where they interacted with some of Oklahoma's most experienced prosecutors, and discussed topics related to legal and ethical standards for prosecuting criminal offenses, conducting court hearings, and effectively trying cases before juries.

Attendees put their education to the test as a part of a mock trial exercise, in which they prepared opening and closing arguments, and participated in direct and cross-examination of witnesses.

Information regarding the 2016 Prosecutor Boot Camp will be available in November. ♦

“Prosecutor Boot Camp was a second-to-none, indispensable three-day extravaganza...To have so many [prosecutors] of that legal caliber so readily at my disposal for three days has been essential to my professional growth, and I am thankful that they took the time to volunteer to come and present.”

Thank you to the following prosecutors who dedicated their time and efforts to serve as this year's boot camp faculty.
