

Cross Cultural Learning Collaborative Training

---

Thursday, March 20, 2014
Cameron University, McMahon Centennial Complex
Lawton, OK

TRAINING OVERVIEW: The purpose of this tribal specific training is to educate service providers about the historical trauma concepts and its impact on the mental wellness of American Indian populations and to increase skills on how to better work with American Indian populations. The Cross Cultural Learning Collaborative (CCLC) is a FREE training and CEU approval is pending

Presented by the ODMHSAS Tribal State Relations Workgroup

---

For more information or to register, contact:
Lucinda Myers, Tribal Liaison
(405) 522-6810
lmyers@odmhsas.org

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services

Cross Cultural Learning Collaborative
March 20, 2014
Cameron University McMahon Centennial Complex
Lawton, OK

Registration Information

PLEASE MAIL / FAX TO:

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
c/o Lucinda Myers
1200 NE 13th Street
Oklahoma City, OK 73117
Fax: (405) 522-6809

Name: _____

Contact Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Note: If an email address is included, a confirmation that your registration has been received will be emailed to you.

Place of Employment: _____

Agency mailing address: _____

Current position: _____

For questions or information, contact Lucinda Myers at [lm Myers@odmhsas.org](mailto:lm Myers@odmhsas.org) (405) 522-6810