

The District Attorneys Council
Federal Grants Division
Presents

Using Evidence-Based Practices to Prosecute Sexual Assault

February 26 - 27, 2014

Courtyard by Marriott, Downtown Oklahoma City

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday, February 26, 2014

Training will conclude by 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 27, 2014

This interactive Oklahoma-specific training features national trainers
Christopher Mallios and Viktoria Kristiansson,
Attorney Advisors,
AEquitas: The Prosecutors' Resource on Violence Against Women.

Training Agenda Includes:

- ◆ Overcoming the Consent Defense: Investigating & Prosecuting the Non-Stranger Rapist
- ◆ Developing Offender-Focused Themes and Theories
- ◆ Recreating the Reality of the Crime
- ◆ Educating Judges and Juries about Victim Behavior
- ◆ Using Pre-Trial Motions Effectively
- ◆ Conducting an Effective Voir Dire
- ◆ Cross-Examining the Defendant
- ◆ Prosecuting Alcohol-Facilitated Sexual Assault
- ◆ Effectively Using Medical Evidence and Experts
- ◆ Prosecuting Multiple Defendant Rape, Witnessed Rape, and Other Complex Cases
- ◆ Ethical Considerations

This conference has been presumptively approved for up to 12 hours CLE, including 1 hour of Ethics.

This project was supported by Grant No. 2012-WE-AX-0038 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication/program/exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.

Using Evidence-Based Practices
to Prosecute Sexual Assault

February 26 - 27, 2014

Courtyard by Marriott, Downtown Oklahoma City

Registration:

The training is open to fifty (50) registrants on a first-come, first-served basis. The deadline to register is Friday, February 7, 2014.

Hotel Reservations:

Hotel reservations must be made by Monday, January 27, 2014 to receive the group rate. Reservations can be made at http://www.marriott.com/meeting-event-hotels/group-corporate-travel/groupCorp.mi?resLinkIdData=District%20Attorneys%20Council%5Eokcdt%60dacadaca%7Cdacadacb%6087%60USD%60false%602/25/14%602/27/14%601/27/14&app=resvlink&stop_mobi=yes or by calling 1-800-217-9905. Inform the reservationist you are with the DAC or “District Attorneys Council” to receive the group rate. A credit card is required to make room reservations.

Parking:

Conference participants will not be charged for parking.

Lodging, Travel, and Per Diem:

Lodging will be direct billed to DAC’s master account for Tuesday and Wednesday nights. DAC will offer mileage reimbursement per the ODOT mileage chart and per diem for attendees who travel more than 60 miles one way to the training pursuant to the State Travel Reimbursement Act.

Continuing Education:

This training has been presumptively approved for up to 12 hours CLE, including 1 hour Ethics.

To register, please fax your completed registration form to:

Melissa Blanton, District Attorneys Council

FAX: (405) 264-5095

Name:	Title/District #:
State Employee ID#: (On pay stub)	OBA#:
Address:	City, State & Zip:
E-mail Address:	Phone Number:

For questions, please contact Melissa Blanton at 405-264-5008 or melissa.blanton@dac.state.ok.us.

The District Attorneys Council
Federal Grants Division

Using Evidence-Based Practices
to Prosecute Sexual Assault

February 26 - 27, 2014

Courtyard by Marriott, Downtown Oklahoma City

AGENDA

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

8:30 - 9:00	Registration
9:00 - 9:30	Welcome and Introductions Suzanne McClain Atwood Executive Coordinator District Attorneys Council
9:30 - 10:45	Overcoming the Consent Defense: Investigating & Prosecuting the Non-Stranger Rapist
10:45 - 11:00	Break
11:00 - 11:30	Developing Offender-Focused Themes and Theories
11:30 - 12:00	Recreating the Reality of the Crime
12:00 - 1:30	Lunch On Your Own
1:30 - 2:45	Educating Judges and Juries about Victim Behavior
2:45 - 3:15	Using Pre-Trial Motions Effectively
3:15 - 3:30	Break
3:30 - 4:30	Conducting an Effective Voir Dire
4:30 - 5:00	Cross-Examining the Defendant
5:00	Adjourn for the Day ODAA Hospitality - Courtyard by Marriott Lobby/Bar

In order to receive full continuing education credit, attorneys must sign in before each morning and afternoon session.

The District Attorneys Council
Federal Grants Division

Using Evidence-Based Practices
to Prosecute Sexual Assault

February 26 - 27, 2014

Courtyard by Marriott, Downtown Oklahoma City

AGENDA

Thursday, February 27, 2014

8:30 - 9:00	Sign-In
9:00 - 10:30	Prosecuting Alcohol-Facilitated Sexual Assault
10:30 - 10:45	Break
10:45 - 11:45	Effectively Using Medical Evidence and Experts
11:45 - 1:15	Lunch On Your Own
1:15 - 2:15	Prosecuting Multiple Defendant Rape, Witnessed Rape, and Other Complex Cases
2:15 - 3:15	Ethical Considerations
3:15 - 3:30	Wrap-up and Conclusion

This conference has been presumptively approved pursuant to the rules of the Oklahoma Supreme Court for up to 12 hours Continuing Legal Education, including 1 hour of Ethics.

In order to receive full continuing education credit, attorneys must sign in before each morning and afternoon session.

This project was supported by Grant No. 2012-WE-AX-0038 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication/program/exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.

Christopher Mallios
Attorney Advisor
AEquitas: The Prosecutors' Resource on Violence Against Women

Christopher Mallios is an Attorney Advisor for AEquitas: The Prosecutors' Resource on Violence Against Women. As an Attorney Advisor he presents on trial strategy, legal analysis and policy, and ethical issues related to violence against women at the local, state, and national level. He conducts research; develops training materials, resources, and publications; and provides case consultation and technical assistance for prosecutors and allied professionals.

For more than 10 years, Mr. Mallios worked as a trial attorney and supervisor specializing primarily in the prosecution of crimes involving violence against women. As the Chief of the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office Family Violence & Sexual Assault Unit, he prosecuted and supervised the prosecution of thousands of cases involving domestic violence, sexual assault, and child physical and sexual abuse. Mr. Mallios also served as an advisor for the Philadelphia Police Department's Special Victims Unit and Internal Affairs Division. The District Attorney selected Mr. Mallios to serve as her liaison to the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community in Philadelphia, and as Hate Crimes Coordinator, he was responsible for training prosecutors and victim/witness coordinators and acting as a liaison to law enforcement and other government and private agencies.

During the three years he spent as a prosecutor/lobbyist in the Legislation Unit of the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, Mr. Mallios drafted and promoted legislation to benefit prosecutors, police, and crime victims in Pennsylvania's General Assembly on behalf of the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office and Pennsylvania District Attorneys Association. Mr. Mallios has testified in many legislative hearings and has presented numerous training programs at Philadelphia's Police Academy and Detective Training Program. He also trained many classes of volunteers at Women Organized Against Rape in Philadelphia.

Mr. Mallios is based in Philadelphia and is the Northeast Regional Attorney Advisor for AEquitas. He has served as a co-chair of the Law Enforcement Subcommittee of the Philadelphia Domestic Violence Task Force, and was an active member of Philadelphia's Sexual Assault Advisory Council, which promoted a coordinated multidisciplinary response for victims of sexual assault. In that role, he helped bring state-of-the-art rape kits and standardized medical record forms for sexual assault treatment in Philadelphia's emergency rooms. Mr. Mallios was also responsible for training more than 300 prosecutors as the director of Continuing Legal Education at the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, where he often taught programs on ethics for prosecutors. He has been a frequent presenter for the Pennsylvania District Attorneys Institute and he has taught trial advocacy as an adjunct professor at the Beasley School of Law at Temple University and is currently an Adjunct Professor at the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Policy and Practice and an affiliate of the Ortner Center on Family Violence.

Mr. Mallios received his B.S. in Science from the Pennsylvania State University and his J.D. from Temple University School of Law. He served as a law clerk on the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania, and is member of the bars of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Viktorija Kristiansson
Attorney Advisor
AEquitas: The Prosecutors' Resource on Violence Against Women

Viktorija Kristiansson is an Attorney Advisor for AEquitas: The Prosecutors' Resource on Violence Against Women. As an Attorney Advisor, she develops resources, publications, and training materials; provides case consultation and technical assistance for prosecutors and allied professionals; and provides collaborative policy consultation. She presents on trial strategy, legal analysis and policy, and ethical issues related to violence against women.

Prior to joining AEquitas, she served as a Deputy Attorney General and Special Assistant to the Attorney General of New Jersey. She worked on special projects for the Attorney General, developing strategies to enhance and improve the efficiency and the delivery of law enforcement services. Her collaborations with prosecutors, law enforcement, the courts, and victim service agencies focused on creating and refining programs supporting violence against women initiatives and victims. She originally joined New Jersey's Department of Law and Public Safety as a prosecutor specializing in human trafficking in the Major Crimes Bureau of the Division of Criminal Justice.

Ms. Kristiansson previously served as a Senior Attorney for the National Center for the Prosecution of Violence Against Women at the American Prosecutors Research Institute, the research and technical assistance division of the National District Attorneys Association. She began her legal career as an Assistant District Attorney in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where she focused on the prosecution of cases involving sexual assault, intimate partner violence, and child sexual and physical abuse.

She is a member of the New Jersey Governor's Advisory Council Against Sexual Violence, a multidisciplinary council comprised of governmental and non-governmental members who are charged with reviewing and recommending policies, procedures, protocols, legislation, trainings, and standards related to sexual violence and recommending solutions in the prevention of sexual violence. She is also a member of the New Jersey Coalition Against Sexual Assault Law Enforcement Advisory Board, which develops training for law enforcement on the investigation of sexual assault.

Ms. Kristiansson received a Bachelor of Arts from Indiana University and a Juris Doctor from Temple University School of Law. She is a member of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey bars.