About This Training:

This one day workshop aims to increase Multidisciplinary Team Members knowledge and understanding of the following forensic interview techniques and Court Testimony:

- Reasons why children might provide inaccurate information;
- The difference between field interviews and forensic interviews at Children Advocacy Centers;
- Problematic and inappropriate questions during the forensic interview;
- And what to do before, during and after court when defending your interview.

Targeted audience:

Members of the Multidisciplinary Team including law enforcement, medical professionals, mental health professionals, Child Welfare, Child Advocacy Center staff and coordinators and District Attorneys/Assistant District Attorneys.

Presenter:

Maria Rosales-Lambert is currently the Program Director and the Bi-lingual Forensic Interviewer at Oklahoma Interviewing Services, INC (OIS) where she provides forensic interviews and trainings for law enforcement agencies, Department of Human Services (DHS) and Child Advocacy Centers (CAC) throughout the state of Oklahoma. Ms. Rosales-Lambert serves as a faculty member with the Department of Human Services, Child First/Finding Words Oklahoma, Child Abuse Training Coordination, National Children's Advocacy Center, and the American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children. She has not only conducted interviews and trainings in Oklahoma 2005 but also nationally, in Canada and Guatemala. She was a Police Officer for five years with the Ft Smith Police Department in Fort Smith, Arkansas. Also, Ms. Rosales-Lambert is a native of Mexico.
