

Impact of Trauma on Investigations

Presented by
Choctaw Nation Family Violence Program and SOS for Families

Who Should Attend?

Law Enforcement, Advocates, Mental Health Professionals and Other Allied Professionals

About the trainer:

Jennifer McLaughlin, MSW, CDSVRP is the Director of Professional Development for the Oklahoma Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault. She is a graduate of the University of Central Oklahoma with a degree in Criminal Justice. Jennifer holds a Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Oklahoma and is currently under supervision for clinical licensure.

Her professional experience includes over 15 years of service in domestic violence and sexual assault field; she has worked part time as a Batterer Treatment Group Facilitator and has spent time as adjunct faculty at OSU-OKC. Jennifer has been utilized in court as an expert witness in both domestic violence and sexual assault criminal cases.

Date: Friday April 17, 2015

Location: Choctaw Nation Antlers Field Office, 400 SW O Street Antlers, OK.

Time: 8:00am to 5:00pm

FREE Breakfast and lunch provided by Choctaw Nation Family Violence Program

Training Date –Friday, April 17, 2015

CEUs Available:

8 hrs CLEET (2MH); 8 hrs LSW, LCSW, LPC/LMFT, CDSVRP

This training will describe the symptoms of trauma often experienced by victims of sexual assault and domestic violence. The information presented will assist police officers and other allied professionals working with these victims in understanding their behavior. Special attention will be given to the impact on the victim's mental health and how that related to the impact on police investigations when investigating the crimes of domestic violence or sexual assault.

| | |
|---------|--|
| NAME: | |
| TITLE: | |
| AGENCY: | |
| EMAIL: | |
| PHONE: | |

Fax your registration to:

Davania Wesley, Choctaw Nation
580-584-3150

or

Dana Kuykendall. SOS for Family Violence Intervention
banded22@yahoo.com 580-286-2599