

Lexipol presents

Body Worn Cameras

Discussing the Impact - What Law Enforcement Leaders Need to Know

A no-cost webinar presentation for law enforcement leaders

All OMAG member law enforcement Chiefs and command staff are cordially invited to attend this webinar sponsored by Lexipol discussing the impact of Body Worn Cameras and how it affects law enforcement policy. This no-cost, 30-minute webinar will be held on two dates for your convenience:

Tuesday, February 10, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. Central Time, and

Wednesday, February 11, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. Central Time

For meeting log-in details, please RSVP to
Karen Keyser at kkeyser@lexipol.com or call 949-325-1230.

Lexipol's Vice President and Senior Legal Advisor Ken Wallentine, will be discussing the impact of Body Worn Cameras in law enforcement, specifically:

The most recent research on the use of body-worn cameras:

- * Do cops behave better when they are recorded?
- * How does body-worn video recording impact citizen behavior?

Practical issues, including:

- * Communicating body worn camera program expectations to the public and to officers
- * Data storage, redaction, public access and technical issues

Legal issues, such as:

- * Citizens' right to privacy
- * Public record or merely evidence? How this impacts data storage legal requirements
- * Two-party consent laws
- * Facial recognition concerns
- * When to record and when not to record
- * What to consider regarding data storage

Ken Wallentine is Vice President and Senior Legal Advisor for Lexipol. Ken is the former Chief of Law Enforcement for the Utah Attorney General, and also formerly served as Bureau Chief of the POST Investigations Bureau and Administrative Counsel for Utah Department of Public Safety. Throughout Ken's 30 year career in public safety he has held the positions of law enforcement officer, law professor, practicing public attorney and municipal judge. Ken's publications include Street Legal: A Guide for Police, Prosecutors & Defenders (American Bar Association Publishing Company), and his most recent book, The K9 Officer's Legal Handbook, 2nd Ed., (Lexis Nexis)

Lexipol is America's leading provider of risk management resources for public safety organizations. We offer the most comprehensive solution for managing policy in law enforcement agencies.

This webinar presentation is hosted by The Oklahoma Municipal Assurance Group.

