

April 1-3, 2008 • Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

About the Training

The goal of this training is to improve the level of knowledge, communication, and collaboration involved in addressing the criminal gang issue affecting communities throughout the nation. The curriculum is based on current policies and proven practices and strategies in the criminal justice field. The training is a collaborative effort among federal partners. Instruction is provided by experienced practitioners and subject-matter experts at no cost to attendees. This training was developed in accordance with the U.S. Department of Justice Initiative for Safer Communities to deliver comprehensive anti-gang training that addresses prevention, enforcement, and prisoner reentry issues for state and local law enforcement and related partner organizations.

Training Format and Tracks

Because all levels of criminal justice have an important role in gang prevention, the Project Safe Neighborhoods Anti-Gang Training Conference is tailored to address concerns of criminal justice practitioners at multiple levels. The following tracks are designed to address these varying needs.

Executives Track

Presented in a roundtable format for key leaders, this track will increase awareness of local criminal gang issues and initiatives designed to combat the challenges that gangs present.

Line Law Enforcement Track

Designed to provide law enforcement officers, corrections personnel, and probation and parole officers with information to address relevant issues. Presentations include Characteristics of Armed Gang Members and Where Do Crime Guns Come From?

Investigators and Prosecutors Track

Designed to enable investigators and prosecutors to explore gang topics in depth. Presentations include Fugitive Status, Overview of Investigative Tools, and Charging Tools.

Intervention and Prevention Track

Designed to provide specific information for educational professionals and other professionals who interact with gang-involved youth. Presentations include Community Gang Problem Assessment, Working With Probation and Parole, and Overview of Gang Prevention.
