

Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma
Project SAFE & Voices 4 Survivors

---

Saturday, August 16, 2014
9:00 am to 3:30 pm
McAlester EXPO Center

A warrior's strength is measured by the size of his heart. He shows love – Honor – Respect. He will stand and fight in the face of adversity for the ones he loves. He will be that voice. He will be their shield. He leads by example. Always remembering who he is.

REAL MEN Relationship Education and Awareness for Life
Retired Police Sgt. Robert Moore, My Body My Life
The 'I Believe Guy' Brian Jackson – Motivating Young Men using archery
Paul Roberts, Jesse Pacheco and the Choctaw Nation Stick Ball Team will be doing a demonstration, encouraging students to participate in the game.

Lunch will be provided.

Open to all teenage boys, fathers, uncles, grandfathers and brothers.
(Moms' are welcome too)

For more information contact Karen:
Choctaw Project SAFE
P O Box 463 Talihina, OK 74571
klyons@choctawnation.com
Telephone: 918-567-4265      FAX: 918-567-2081

