KAIR Hands Free Bath Visor – Green

Product Description

Totally different from ANY other bath visors, also known as shower visor, shampoo visor, baby shower cap, baby shower hat, shampoo shield and etc, Kair has brought the Fluid Statics into the design to push the hair washing care to a new class! Kair Bath Visor consists of a soft air filled sealing tube, a flexible brim and a springy headband embedded inside the lower portion of the brim. The air filled sealing tube acts like a semi-filled inner tire providing a comfortable air cushion between the wearer's head and the headband. Moreover it utilizes the air inside the sealing tube to distribute the gentle pressure evenly along the wearer's hairline to achieve a consistent sealing effect. The sealing tube is just semi-filled to allow a sensitive response to the pressure exerted by the springy headband. While some portions being compressed, other portions can be easily popped up to fill any gaps between the wearer's head and the headband. Therefore, leak proof is guaranteed. Kair Bath Visor also has an open-ended design, making it truly one size for all. Kair Bath Visor is also designed for easy to use in both shower and bath with your hands free. All the external parts of the visor are made of silicone rubber as used in many other baby products, so it is safe, durable and comfortable! Kair is a brand new way to spell care for your babies and even you. With Kair Bath Visor in your bathroom, you and your babies will be relaxed with a fresh experience of "Simple Wear! Gentle Care!" Leak proof guranteed by the unique air cushioned sealing design. Hands Free and One Size Fits All. Great for washing little babies' hair in bath. Great for older kids to learn (or adults) to wash their own hair in the shower. All external parts are made of soft silicone rubber to ensure it is safe, durable and comfortable for babies.
