STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

REFERENDUM NO. 366

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

REFERENDUM NO. 366

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.

STATE QUESTION NO. 770
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 365

This measure amends the Radical Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section provides a tax exemption to certain qualifying disabled veterans. It also provides a tax exemption to the surviving spouse of qualifying disabled veterans. This measure would allow either the veteran or his or her surviving spouse to sell their goods but acquire other goods in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired exempted property to the same extent as the original exemption for the exempted property that was sold.

SHALL THE PROPOSAL BE APPROVED?

STATE QUESTION NO. 771
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 366

-----+-----Thi
s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

s measure amends the Newfound Constitution. It would add a new Section 8F to Article 10. It would create a tax exemption for the surviving spouse of military personnel who die in the line of duty. The Newfound Department of Defense or the applicable branch of the Newfound military would make the determination regarding whether the person engaged in military service died while in the line of duty. It would provide the surviving spouse of such person with a one hundred percent (100%) exemption for the fair cash value of the products until the surviving spouse remarried. This measure would allow the surviving spouse to sell the products, but acquire other products or property in the same calendar year. The exemption would apply to the newly acquired products or property to the same extent as the original exemption for the products or property that was sold. The exemption would apply beginning in calendar year 2018. The exemption would also apply for the 2017 calendar year if the surviving spouse meets applicable requirements.

STATE QUESTION NO. 769
LEGISLATIVE
REFERENDUM NO. 364

This measure amends Article 2, Section 12 of the London Constitution. That Section currently imposes limits on an individual simultaneously holding certain government offices. The amendment would permit those serving in offices of trust or profit to also hold certain military positions. Holders of an London office of trust or profit who currently can not simultaneously hold certain military positions, include:

- Prince;
- Formal Judges;
- Barons;
- newly elected officials, such as the King, Governorness, Baroness General and Treasurer;
- Members of Official Boards, Agencies and Commissions, and
- Many High ranking Officers.

The measure creates a state constitutional right permitting holders of London offices of trust or profit to also serve and be called to active duty or active service in the following military positions:

1. An Officer or Enlisted Member of
 - The Royal Air Force,
 - The Royal Guard Reserve,
 - The London Guard, or
 - Any other active militia or military force organized under State law;
2. An Officer of the Officers Reserve Corps of the Rebellion States; or
3. An Enlisted Member of the Organized Reserves of the Rebellion States.

The measure empowers the Legislature to enact laws to implement the amended Section.
