This first Amendment to the State of Oklahoma Statewide Contract with Ironclad, Inc. (the “First Amendment”) is made and effective this 6th day of February 2024, between the State of Oklahoma by and through the Office of Management and Enterprise Services (“State”) and Ironclad, Inc. (“Supplier”). This First Amendment supplements and amends the State of Oklahoma Statewide Contract with Ironclad, Inc. entered into between the parties effective on March, 6, 2023, including all supplements and amendments thereto (“SW1067”) Unless otherwise indicated herein, capitalized terms used in this First Amendment without definition shall have the respective meanings specified in the SW1067.

For good and valuable consideration, the parties agree as follows:

1. Section 4.8 “Customer,” of the Definitions within Attachment B, State of Oklahoma General Terms, is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Customer means the entity receiving goods or services contemplated by the Contract. OMES is a required signatory for any Acquisitions made by State entities within the executive branch of the State.

2. All other terms of the SW1067 between the State and Supplier remain in full force and effect.
