

Community Corrections Reporting Process for Critical/Serious Incidents

Critical/serious incident is defined as a riot, major disturbance, hostage situation, assault/battery of staff resulting in serious bodily injury, non-natural death or serious injury of offender, all escapes from community correctional centers, community work centers, or halfway houses and any incident drawing outside law enforcement or widespread media attention.