Our agency has lost a dear friend, a colleague and valued Ex-Board of Corrections member. Theodore "Ted" Logan passed away on June 13, 2013. Mr. Logan had an extensive history in corrections. He began his career with the Oklahoma Department of Corrections in January, 1972 as a Correctional Treatment Officer at the Oklahoma City Community Treatment Center. After holding several positions there, he was named Superintendent of the Women's Treatment Center in December, 1975. In 1977, that facility was renamed Mabel Bassett Correctional Center and Mr. Logan was appointed as Warden. He served in that capacity until May, 1984 when he was appointed Superintendent of the Lawton Community Corrections Center. He retired from the agency in December of 1987. He was appointed to the Oklahoma Board of Corrections in July, 2003 and served until June, 2012. Logan served as a criminal justice instructor at Cameron University from 1985-1987 and later served sixteen years as criminal justice instructor and department head at Rose State College, from 1988 until he retired in 2004. On April 25, 2013, Mr. Logan was honored by the renaming of the Kate Barnard Community Corrections Center Multi-Purpose Room to the Ted R. Logan Meeting Center. His dedication and commitment has been an integral part of our success and growth. He will be dearly missed.

Please keep Mr. Logan and his family in your thoughts during this difficult time.
