

SMART® System and Equipment Assignment Rules

Failure to comply with the following conditions may result in your return to court for a violation of your probation, parole or bail conditions at which time the court may sentence you to a term of incarceration.

1. You will not tamper with the SMART® System equipment in any manner.
2. You may only disconnect or move the Smart® System equipment upon specific instruction from your supervising officer.
3. You will place the MTD in the powered-up charging stand for a minimum of ten (10) hours a day and at all times when at home.
4. The MTD and charging stand should be placed near a window at all times.
5. You must use a telephone of approved quality. Electricity and phones are required. If either is disconnected due to late payments, etc., this will be considered a violation. You will not subscribe to the Call Forwarding feature on your telephone.
6. You will submit work schedules for approval on a weekly basis unless otherwise instructed. You must obtain approval in advance from the supervising agency to change your schedule.
7. You will allow the supervising officer to inspect the equipment upon request.
8. You are responsible for the care of the equipment issued to you. You will be held financially responsible for any damage to the equipment and be criminally prosecuted for equipment theft.
9. You will place the MTD in an area that is unobstructed with the display facing up, on your belt at all times.
10. You will carry the MTD with you at all times. You will keep the MTD within 50 feet of you at all times. Leaving the MTD behind at home, work or the other places will be grounds for a violation.
11. You understand that all movement will be tracked and stored as an official record.
12. You will follow all established home, work, etc. rules. Deviation from your schedule and/or approved routes is a violation.
13. You will not enter areas that are defined to be off-limits.
14. You will respond immediately to all messages that are sent to your MTD.

The rules of the SMART® System Program have been provided to me. I fully understand what is expected of me and the possible consequences of any failure to comply with these rules. I agree to release the supervising agency, its personnel and the vendor from any liability associated with my participation in the SMART® System Program.

My signature confirms the above as well as my receipt of the SMART® System equipment.
