

August 2, 2010

DIRECTOR'S
NEWS UPDATE

DOC Employee's Daughter Receives
2010 Susan M. Hunter Scholarship Award

The Oklahoma Department of Corrections is proud to announce the selection of Kyrstan Glasco, daughter of Mack Alford Correctional Center employee Dyanna Price, as a recipient for the 2010 Susan Hunter Scholarship Award. The scholarship is named for Susan M. Hunter, former chief of the Prisons Division of the National Institute of Corrections, who passed away in 2003. Kyrstan was one of 31 recipients out of over 800 applicants and was among the 22 who received the $1,000.00 scholarship awards.

Kyrstan Glasco attended Coalgate public schools for 12 years and is a 2010 graduate of Coalgate High School. During high school she took Advanced Placement classes in Math and English and concurrent enrollment classes from Murray State College. She was on the honor roll and member of the National Honor Society and an Academic Athlete for four years. Kyrstan was also the Student Council President and Senior Class Vice-President.

During high school she participated on the cheerleading team for one year, the basketball team for two years, and the softball team for four years. Kyrstan was also a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years and the Art Club.

Kyrstan has two brothers, Andrew and Tanner Price and one sister, Tara Flint. She is a member of the First Baptist Church of Coalgate.

Kyrstan will be attending the University of Oklahoma and majoring in chemistry. She is the daughter of Dyanna Price and Gregg Glasco. Ms. Price began her career at Mack Alford Correctional Center on August 24, 2007 as a Customer Service Representative II and promoted to Administrative Technician III on November 9, 2009.

Congratulations Kyrstan Glasco on behalf of the Oklahoma Department of Corrections.