OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, Americans are served every day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels; and

Whereas, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

Whereas, many public servants which, among others, include – military personnel, law enforcement officers, firefighters, health care professionals, and corrections employees, risk their lives in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

Whereas, from educators to doctors and scientists, train conductors, air traffic controllers, nurses and safety inspectors, laborers, information technology professionals, social workers, and countless other occupations, public servants strive to provide vital and diverse services with efficiency and integrity to keep our country functioning; and

Whereas, Oklahoma's public servants serve the citizens of our state with the utmost level of competence, dedication, and professionalism; and

Whereas, Oklahomans are urged to recognize and commend the contributions of men and women who devote their careers to public service;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim May 4th through May 10th, 2014 as

"Public Service Recognition Week"

in the state of Oklahoma.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

ATTEST:

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 21st day of April, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and fourteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and sixth year.

Proclamation

Whereas, Oklahoma state government employees make significant contributions to the well-being and quality of life for the citizens of our state; and

Whereas, Oklahoma's state employees preserve public safety and the health of our citizens; protect our clean air and water; care for less fortunate members of society; rehabilitate and counsel people in need; preserve our economic interest by attracting and supporting commerce; build and maintain our highways, schools, and other infrastructure; administer justice; protect citizens' rights; care for victims of crimes; inspect our food; license our cars; help educate our children; make remarkable advances in medicine, science and technology; and handle a host of other essential duties entrusted to them by the public; and

Whereas, in these challenging economic times, the employees of the state of Oklahoma perform their duties with professionalism, compassion, integrity, and commitment to those they serve, while continually seeking ways to cut costs and use taxpayer resources wisely; and

Whereas, it is appropriate to set aside a day during Public Employee Recognition Week to honor and recognize all state employees and provide our citizenry an opportunity to learn more about their state government and the exceptional employees who serve them; and

Whereas, Oklahoma is privileged to join other states across the nation on Wednesday, May 7, 2014, to express special recognition and gratitude to our state employees for their tremendous efforts, sacrifices, and unselfish spirit of dedication to the citizens of our state;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim May 7, 2014 as in the state of Oklahoma.

"State Employee Recognition Day"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.
