

OKLAHOMA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS
Correctional Officer Self- Administration/Issuance Learning Assessment

Circle the correct answer.

1. Medications for offender self- administration are
 - a. Considered the offender's personal property.
 - b. Secured under a lock and key in an environment that maintains the integrity of the medication.
 - c. Specific for the offender.
 - d. All of the above.
2. Correctional Officers observing offender self-administration of medications are not responsible for any adverse medical event that may occur following offender self-administration.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. Administration of a medication is defined as the direct application of a drug, whether by ingestion, application, inhalation or any other means, to the body of a patient/offender. Who can administer medication to offenders in ODOC?
 - a. Correctional Officers
 - b. The Director of DOC
 - c. Volunteers
 - d. Licensed/Certified Health professionals
4. Direct administrations of drugs are completed by the offender. Correctional Officers are permitted to issue medications for offender self-administration.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. Which of the following is a Correctional Officer responsibility?
 - a. Notify medical when sharps container is $\frac{3}{4}$ full.
 - b. Provide patient/offender education concerning medication.
 - c. Receive medications and check against the medical provider's order.
 - d. All of the above.
6. Correctional Officers' responsibilities include:
 - a. Verifying offenders ID name and DOC number (ID) matches offender name and DOC number on medication container/package.
 - b. Observing offender taking the medication and responsible for signing form DOC 140130J.
 - c. Both A & B.
 - d. None of the above
7. When observing offender fingersticks and insulin injections, the Correctional Officer needs to ensure
 - a. Offender has appropriate amount of blood on strip.
 - b. Offender understands how to self administer insulin.
 - c. All used lancets and syringes are placed in sharps container.
 - d. All of the above.
8. Correctional officers are responsible to co-sign verification of syringe count on "Community Corrections Supervised Medication/Syringe Count Log" (DOC 140130J) for insulin injection observations.
 - a. True
 - b. False
9. Offenders are not required to sign out an insulin syringe each time for self-administration on the "Community Corrections Supervised Medication/Syringe Count Log" (DOC 140130J).
 - a. True
 - b. False
10. When issuing KOP medications, Correctional officers are responsible for the following EXCEPT:
 - a. Verifying offender name and DOC number (ID) matches offender name and DOC number on medication container/package.
 - b. Have offender sign pharmacy drug manifest as proof of receipt.
 - c. Verifying the medication received with the medical provider's order.
 - d. Fax completed manifest to host facility health administrator.