

April 15, 2015

DIRECTOR'S
NEWS UPDATE

Medical Services Announces
Regional Nurses and State Nurse of the Year for 2015

Julie Brown, Licensed Practical Nurse
Central Region Nurse of the Year & State Nurse of the Year

Julie has worked at Lexington Assessment & Reception Center (LARC) since 2000. Nomination notes included that Julie is structured & organized. Her initiative has improved the overall efficiency of LARC medical. She is highly dedicated to patient care. She is compassionate at what she does and it is reflected in her desire for excellence!

Denise Hunter, Registered Nurse
Western Region Nurse of the Year

Denise has worked at William S. Key Correctional Center since 2002. Nomination notes included that Denise is thorough with assessments. She is a great teacher and is a very compassionate and caring nurse. Denise has excellent communication skills; she is able to calm a difficult/hostile situation with her calming demeanor.

Mary Kekabbah, Registered Nurse
NE Region Nurse of the Year

Mary has worked at Dick Conner Correctional Center since 2011. Nomination notes included that Mary is the epitome of a team player. She is an advocate for every patient. She speaks calmly and kindly...she is supportive, helpful and never backs down from a job.

Mallory Woten, Registered Nurse
SE Region Nurse of the Year

Mallory has worked at Jackie Brannon Correctional Center (JBCC) since 2013. Nomination notes included that Mallory is an excellent trainer and coach for new staff. She is an outstanding advocate for her patients. She has been instrumental in positive changes at JBCC.