visits in disciplinary status (attorney visits/clergy only), and visits between clergy and social service agency representatives, etc. Special visits for ministers/religious leaders as defined in OP-030112 entitled "Religious Programs" are to be professional in nature and are provided for offenders with whom the minister/religious leader has a ministerial relationship. All special minister/religious leader special visits will be scheduled in advance (unless an emergency situation exists) through the facility/unit head. The length and conditions of any special visit will be determined by the Warden. Special visits for terminally ill offenders will be handled in accordance with OP-140146 entitled "Palliative Care Program".

Such visitors will be subject to a National Crime Information Center (NCIC) check when such a check is requested by the Warden or a Deputy Warden.

Only the Warden or a Deputy Warden will have the authority to approve a special visit. Special visit requests must be completed prior to weekend or holiday visits. Special visits will count towards the total number of visits.
