Public Service Recognition Week - May 5-11, 2008

Governor Brad Henry recently signed two proclamations in recognition of Public Service Week and State Employee Recognition Day. (Both proclamations may be accessed via the links below.)

Public Service is indeed a calling that requires dedication, commitment, and teamwork well beyond normal work expectations. The employees of the Oklahoma Department of Corrections continue to be impressive year after year as they continue to provide outstanding service to the public and others they serve. Please take the time during the week of May 5th to express your thanks to those in your work location for without each other we would be unable to accomplish all we do.

In recognition of Public Service Recognition Week, the agency has authorized May 5-11 as casual days. (Refer to OP-110425 for guidelines.)
