ODOC-Victim Services Unit

The educational support group for Survivors of Homicide is designed to serve and support surviving victims of homicide.

- To provide a voice.
- To provide a compassionate listening heart.
- To provide compassionate care.

Our goal is to provide:

- Increase of information and communication.
- To help create awareness of community services for long term resources.
- To create a network for sharing experiences and support.

Surviving Victims of Homicide Educational Support Group

- Want to talk?
- Do you feel alone?
- Are you hurting?
- Need someone to listen?

Do you need support and help?

The Oklahoma Department of Corrections Victims support program is committed to supporting victims and family members as they face the many challenges from a criminal act. Victims will have the opportunity to be empowered with information and support as professionals from the criminal justice field provide information, direction and referrals.
