

Oklahoma Correctional Industries receives no appropriated dollars thereby all funding is generated through sales.

Oklahoma Correctional Industries generates $15,191,881 in fiscal year 2012 sales revenues.

The most recent numbers released by the U.S. Bureau of Justice Statistics report that Oklahoma ranks 4th nationally in the incarceration of males and 1st for females.

Agri-Services provides 100% of the department's need for meat, milk which provides the bulk of food necessary to prepare approximately 57,000 inmate meals per year.

Oklahoma Correctional Industries has 31 operations in 11 locations, including 10 private partnerships.

Oklahoma Correctional Industries produces over 1 million license plates annually.

The rate of female incarceration in Oklahoma is 127 per 100,000 citizens compared to 63 per 100,000 nationally.

Agri-Services is comprised of 12 units; 10 for agricultural production, one food center, and a meat processing center.

An estimated 91% of all inmates will be released back into the community, and an additional 6% are serving life sentences with the possibility of eventually being released under parole supervision.

As authorized by state statute (Prisoners Public Work Program), the department contracts with governmental entities whereby over 1,699 supervised inmates each week day provide significant services to local communities saving tax payers thousands of dollars.

During FY 2012, approximately 677 inmates each month (over 8,000 during the year) were released from custody back into the community.

Did You Know

Produced by
Oklahoma Department of Corrections
Executive Communications
3400 Martin Luther King Avenue
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73111
Phone: (405) 425-2513
www.doc.state.ok.us

Oklahoma
Department of Corrections
Facts & Frequently Asked Questions
www.ok.gov/doc

The Oklahoma Department of Corrections consists of seventeen institutions, six community corrections centers, seven probation and parole districts and fifteen work centers.

Of the total inmate population, 52% are incarcerated for non-violent crimes and 48% for violent crimes.

The Oklahoma Department of Corrections Education Unit is accredited through the North Central Association Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement, as well as the Oklahoma State Department of Education.

COST OF INCARCERATION
(FY 2012 Actual Expenditures)

Security Level	Daily	Annual
Maximum	$78.50	$28,662
Medium	$38.94	$14,212
Minimum	$37.39	$13,647
Community	$40.07	$14,849
Work Centers	$35.55	$12,974
Probation, Parole	$2.92	$1,064

Top 5 Crime Types
as of January 31, 2013

Nonviolent	13,701	52.0%
Violent	12,660	48.0%
The top five controlling offenses:
Drugs:
Distributing Controlled	4,708	17.9%
Assault	2,893	11.0%
Possession/Obtaining	2,553	9.7%
Robbery	2,255	8.6%
Rape	1,899	7.2%

During January 2013, there were 5,257 offenders participating in a program as follows:

Substance Abuse Treatment	1,618
Thinking for a Change	674
Education Programs	2,943
Completed GED	22

In 1981, the Oklahoma Department of Corrections became the first correctional system in the nation to be fully accredited by the American Correctional Association.

On an average, any offender discharging from prison and residing in Tulsa or Oklahoma County must earn approximately $16,000 annually in order to be self-sustaining without public assistance. This figure increases if there are dependents!

During FY 2012, $1,447,250 in restitution fees was collected and distributed to victims.

The Agri-Services unit includes the only U.S. Department of Labor Bureau of Apprenticeship certified correctional Meat Cutting Apprenticeship school for inmates in the nation.

This school, located at the Jackie Brannon Correctional Center, has been in operation for over 15 years. Upon completion of the three-year course, administered by the Oklahoma Department of Vocational and Technical Education, students are certified as journeyman meat cutters.

On any given work day, over 324 inmates are employed by the Agri-Services unit.

Probation and Parole supervises more than 22,000 offenders daily at a cost of $2.75 per offender per day.

As of January 2013, there were 2,686 women incarcerated by the Oklahoma Department of Corrections with another 4,906 on probation and 489 under parole supervision.

Since implementation of the program, over 20,594 offenders have received a Community Sentence, freeing up thousands of beds for more serious offenders.