MABEL BASSETT CORRECTIONAL CENTER Hold Fundraiser for Injured McLoud Police Officer

Mabel Bassett Correctional Center staff helped an injured police officer from McLoud, Oklahoma with money made from a lunch fundraiser. Officer Alan Smith was injured in a car accident on December 17, 2014, while on duty. Officer Smith was hospitalized for several days at the OU Medical Center due to injuries caused by the crash.

Acting Warden Kameron Harvanek delivered a check for Officer Smith to Chief of Police Tom Pringle on Friday, January 23, 2015. Chief Pringle shared that he had spoken with Officer Smith earlier and he is continuing to improve. He stated that Officer Smith is currently in a wheelchair but is able to get out of the house and go some places. Chief Pringle was very appreciative of the donation and stated, "I know Alan will be very grateful as well."
